unless otherwise specifically waived and/or differently agreed upon in writing.

- It has been the belief of the Appellant that irrespective of the mode in which the transactions are undertaken, the Appellant has a singular obligation to deliver a flat hence the substance of the transaction is that of a sale of an immovable property and therefore, no service tax can be attracted.
- J. Appellant initially, till December 2008, when amounts were being received by them they paid service tax in respect of the receipts of construction agreement even though there was a doubt and lot of confusion on the applicability of service tax on construction of complexes.
- K. Later, on when the issue was clarified by CBEC vide the Circular No. 108/02/2009-ST dated 29.01.2009 by the department, the customers of the appellant, stopped paying the service tax and accordingly appellant was forced to stop collecting and discharging service tax liability on the amounts collected in respect of the construction agreement as they were of the bonafide belief that they were excluded vide the personal use clause in the definition of residential complex.
- L. The Department initially issued a show cause Notice No. HQPOR No. 34/2010-Adjn(ST) for the period September 2009 to December 2009 and the same was adjudicated and confirmed vide OIO No: 45/2010-ST dated 29.10.2010. Further the Appellant has gone on appeal and the same has been dismissed vide OIA No.10/2011 (H-II) dated 31.01.2011 by the Commissioner Appeals, Hyderabad. Now the proceedings pertaining to above show cause notice is now pending before Hon'ble CESTAT, Bangalore.

- M. The Appellant vide letter dated 22.04.2011, 08.02.2012 submitted the details of the amount received towards the construction agreement for the period January 2010 to December 2010 and January 2011 to December 2011.
- N. Accordingly, the Additional Commissioner has issued the two periodical SCN vide OR No. 59/2011 dated 23.04.2011 for the period Jan 2010 to Dec 2010 and SCN OR No. 53/2012 dated 24.04.2012 for the period Jan 2011 to Dec 2011 as under:
 - i. An amount of Rs.12,06,447/- payable towards Service Tax, Education Cess and Secondary and Higher education cess should not be demanded under section73(1) of the Finance Act,1994(hereinafter referred to as the Act) for the period January 2010 to December 2010;
 - ii. An amount of Rs. 27,61,048/-payable towards Service Tax, Education Cess and Secondary and Higher education cess should not be demanded under section73(1) of the Act for the period January 2011 to December 2011;
 - iii. Interest on the above should not be demanded under section 75 of the Act;
 - iv. Penalty under sections 76 of the Act should not be demanded from them.
 - v. Penalty under Section 77 of the Act should not be demanded from them.
- O. An amount of service tax Rs.23,73,124/- for the period Jan 2011 to December 2011 is already paid by Cash and Rs.7000/- paid by the CENVAT Account.

- P. However the show cause notice vide OR. No. 53/2012-Adjn-ST (ADC) vide Para 8 acknowledged the payment of service tax to the extent of Rs. 1,73,124/- only.
- Q. For the period April 2010 to March 2012 they have filed the ST-3 Return by disclosing amounts received in the ST-3 returns.
- R. Appellant had submitted a detailed reply to the impugned show cause notices and also appeared for personal hearing on 16.08.2012 and reiterated the submissions. (Copy of the replies and personal hearing recording is enclosed along with this appeal memo).
- S. Despite the detailed submissions made vide written reply as well as during the personal hearing, the Additional Commissioner has passed a common order for the both the notices as under:
 - i. An amount of Rs.12,06,447/- payable towards Service Tax, Education Cess and Secondary and Higher education cess should not be demanded under section 73(2) of the Finance Act,1994 (hereinafter referred to as the Act) for the period January 2010 to December 2010;
 - ii. An amount of Rs. 27,61,048/- payable towards Service Tax, Education Cess and Secondary and Higher education cess should not be demanded under section 73(2) of the Finance Act,1994 (hereinafter referred to as the Act) for the period January 2011 to December 2011;
 - iii. Interest at applicable rates on the above should not be demanded under section 75 of the Act;
 - iv. Penalty of Rs.200 per day or 2% p.m provided penalty shall not exceed the service tax payable under sections 76 of the Act should not be demanded from them.

- v. Penalty of Rs.1000 under Section 77 of the Act should not be demanded fromthem.
- T. The Ld. Additional Commissioner passed the order in original mainly on the basis of the following grounds.
 - a. Since the demand of the service tax for the past period was upheld by the Commissioner (Appeals) on being appeal filed by the Appellant, respectfully following the decision of Commissioner (Appeals) the demand of the Service Tax is sustainable.
 - b. Since the residential complex project having more than 12 flats and layout of the project has been approved by Civic authorities the project has satisfied the definition of the residential complex.
 - c. Construction agreement involves the supply of the material and provision of the service therefore it is composite contract and the project should be classified under the "Works Contract Service".
 - d. It is neither their submission that VAT amount also included in the gross amount nor they have furnished any evidence that they have paid VAT hence the quantification arrived in the show cause notice is to be upheld.
 - e. Benefit under Section 80 of the Finance Act, 1994 is not available to the Appellant since their submission does not cause the reasonable cause.
- U. On aggrieved by the order of the Ld. Additional Commissioner the Appellant filed an Appeal along with the Application for the waiver of the pre-deposit of the taxes before Commissioner (Appeals) explaining in detail as to why the order in original passed by the lower authority was not sustainable (Copy of Appeal filed to Commissioner (Appeals) is enclosed for reference).

- V. The Ld. Commissioner (Appeals) has disposed the stay application vide Order-In-Stay-Petition No. 66/2012 (H-II) S. Tax where in ordered the waiver of pre-deposit further taxes and interest and penalty demanded in the original adjudicating order since.
- W. The Ld. Commissioner (Appeals) vide Order-In-Appeal No. 14/2013 (H-II)
 S. Tax dismissed the Appeal filed by the Appellant. The Ld.
 Commissioner (Appeals) passed the order mainly on the basis of the following grounds.
 - a. Since sale deed was executed for the part amount of the total consideration, Appellant is not covered by the exclusion given under the Board Circular No. 108/102/2009-ST dated 29.01.2009.
 - b. If the entire 'residential complex' is meant for use by one person then it gets excluded from the definition of 'Residential Complex'.
 - c. The benefit under Notification No. 36/2010-ST dated 01.07.2010 is not available for the Appellant since Notification is prospective and the issue involved in the present case for the period January 2009 to December 2011.
 - d. The penalty has to be reduced from Rs.200/- to Rs. 100 per day with effect from 08.04.2011.
 - e. Since the Appellant had not shown the fact of taxable receipts from their customers in their ST-3 Returns filed with the department with intention to evade the payment of service tax as such on their part cannot be treated as bonafide act and imposition of the penalty is rightly applicable.
 - f. Lower authority is directed limited extent to re-quantify the service tax liability.

Aggrieved by the impugned order, which is contrary to facts, law and evidence, apart from being contrary to a catena of judicial decisions and beset with grave and incurable legal infirmities, the Appellant prefers this appeal on the following grounds (which are alternate pleas and without prejudice to one another) amongst those to be urged at the time of hearing of the appeal.

GROUNDS OF APPEAL

- For easy comprehension, submissions in this appeal memo are made under different heading covering different aspects involved in the subject Order:
 - a. The transaction is essentially a transaction of sale of immoveable property and therefore cannot be made liable for payment of service tax at all
 - b. In substance also, the transaction is a sale of immoveable property
 - c. The transaction of sale of immoveable property is not a works contract at all
 - d. Individual bungalows cannot be considered as residential complex and demand of service tax not sustainable
 - e. Land Development neither "construction of complex service" nor "works contract service"
 - f. Construction of Residential complex for "Personal Use"
 - g. Liability on Builders is w.e.f 01.07.2010
 - h. Non consideration of the submissions vis-à-vis violation of principle of natural justice
 - i. Time bar
 - j. Interest Under Section 75 of Finance Act, 1994

k. Penalty Under Section 76 & 77 of Finance Act, 1994

In Re: The transaction is essentially a transaction of sale of immoveable property and therefore cannot be made liable for payment of service tax at all

- 2. The Appellants crave leave to draw the attention of the Bench to the detailed fact matrix presented earlier. In particular, the Appellants wish to emphasize on the following documents:
 - a. The Booking Form signed by the intending buyer, which is the first document governing the relationship between the Appellant and the intending buyer.
 - b. The Agreement to Sell, which formalizes the said relationship between the Appellant and the intending buyer.
 - c. A set of two co-terminus agreements, viz. the Sale Agreement and an Agreement for Construction, which are executed only to enable the transfer of title in semi-finished construction in cases where there is a financing requirement for the buyer.
 - d. Sale Agreement, without a corresponding Agreement for Construction in cases where there is no financing requirement for the buyer.
- 3. The Appellants have to submit that the Booking Form and the Agreement to Sell clearly define the relationship between the Appellants and the Buyer.
 - a. Agreement explains and demonstrates the Title of the Appellant in the underlying land and the sanction received by the Appellants from HUDA for development of the residential units as per the approved layout plans. It may not be out of place to stress that in a typical works contract/construction contract, the contractor works on client property and therefore the agreement has no necessity to emphasise on the title of the underlying land. The essence of the transaction between the Appellant and the Buyer is evident right from the Agreement and that essence is the title in the immoveable property.

- b. Thereafter, agreement highlights that the Appellant has agreed to sell plot with the house together for the total consideration and the buyer has agreed to purchase the same. Thus, the said agreement clearly brings out the intention of the parties, which is sale of immoveable property.
- c. The Appellants therefore submit that the Agreement to Sell is an agreement which evidences the transaction of commitment of sale of immoveable property at a future date and therefore there cannot be any service tax on the said transaction.
- d. However, as stated in Para 9 of the Agreement, in certain cases the Buyers may be interested in availing finance from the Banks and for the said purpose, the Banks insist on a title in favour of the buyer. For the said purpose, the Appellants may enter into a sale deed for sale of flat in a semi-finished state, simultaneously entering into a separate construction contract for completing the unfinished flat. It may be noted that as per para 16 of the Agreement of Sale, the Sale deed and the Agreement for Construction are interdependent, mutually co-existing and inseparable
- e. It may be noted that the said set of co-terminus agreements do not result in any exchange of consideration between the parties but are entered into so as to effectuate the objectives of the Agreement to Sell. Therefore, in that sense, the entering into the said set of co-terminus agreements cannot be considered as an economic transaction resulting in any tax consequence.

- f. Further, the substance of the transaction continues to be that of sale of immoveable property. Merely because the buyer is interested in defending the title to the property in the interim does not change the transaction to be that of a rendition of service.
- 4. The Appellant submits that in the case of Hindustan Shipyard Ltd. Vs. State of Andhra Pradesh [2000] 119 STC 0533 (SC), the Supreme Court held that a contract for construction of ship as per the specifications of the buyer with specific stipulations is a sale contract and not a works contract. The Supreme Court also observed that the clause in the contract providing for passing of property in goods as and when the said goods are used in the contract is not important in deciding the issue. The relevant extracts from the said decision are as under:
 - "22. Reverting back to the facts of the contract under consideration before us, a few prominent features of the transaction are clearly deducible from the several terms and conditions and recitals of the contract. The contract is for sale of a completely manufactured ship to be delivered after successful trials in all respects and to the satisfaction of the buyer. It is a contract for sale of made to order goods, that is, ship for an ascertained price. Although the plans and specifications for the ship are to be provided by the customer and the work has to progress under the supervision of the classification surveyor and representative of the buyer, the components used in building ship, all belong to the appellant. The price fixed is of the vessel completely built up although the payment is in a phased manner or, in other words, at certain percentages commensurate with the progress of the work. The payment of 15 per cent of the price is to be made on satisfactory completion of the dock trials, that is when the vessel is ready to be delivered and strictly speaking excepting the delivery nothing substantial remains to be done.

Twenty per cent of the price is to be paid upon delivery of the vessel. Thus 65 per cent of the price paid before the trials is intended to finance the builder and to share a part of the burden involved in the investments made by the builder towards building the ship. It is a sort of an advance payment of price. The "title and risk clause" quoted as sub-para (14) above is to be found in 6 out of 8 contracts in question. So far as these 6 contracts are concerned they leave no manner of doubt that property in goods passes from seller to the buyer only on the ship having been builtfully and delivered to the buyer. In all the contracts the ultimate conclusion would remain the same. The ship at the time of delivery has to be completely built up ship and also seaworthy whereupon only the owner may accept the delivery. A full reading of the contract shows that the chattel comes into existence as a chattel in a deliverable state by investment of components and labour by the seller and property in chattel passes to the buyer on delivery of chattel being accepted by the buyer. Article 15 apparently speaks of property in vessel passing to the buyer with the payment of first instalment of price but we are not to be guided by the face value of the language employed; we have to ascertain intention of the parties. The property in machines, equipments, engine, etc., purchased by the seller is not agreed upon to pass to the buyer. The delivery of the ship must bepreceded by trial run or runs to the satisfaction of the owner. All the machinery, materials, equipment, appurtenances, spare parts and outfit required for the construction of the vessel are to be purchased by the builderout of its own funds. Neither any of the said things nor the hull is provided by the owner and in none of these the property vests in the owner. It is nota case where the builder is utilising in building the ship, the machinery, equipment, spares and material, etc., belonging to the owner, whosoever might have paid for the same. The builder has thereafter to exert and investits own skill and labour to build the ship. Not only the owner does not supply or make available any of the said things or the hull of the ship the owner does not also pay for any of the said things or the hull separately. All the things so made available by the builder are fastened to the hull belonging to the builder and become part of it so as to make a vessel. Whatthe owner pays to the builder in instalments and in a phased manner a reall payments at the specified percentage which go towards the payment of the contract price, i.e., the price appointed for the vessel as a whole. 65 percent payment of the price is up to the stage of the main engine having been lowered in position on board the vessel, i.e., the stage by which the building of the vessel is complete. 15 per cent payment is to be done on satisfactory completion of the trial and 20 per cent upon delivery of the vessel. Giving maximum benefit in the matter of construction and interpretation of this clause in favour of the appellant it can be said that it is the property in vessel which starts passing gradually to the buyer proportionately with the percentage of payments made and passes fully with the payment of last instalment on delivery of vessel having been accepted.

- 5. The Appellant submits that based on the above observations, the Supreme Court concluded that the contracts in question involve sale of the respective vessels within the meaning of clause (n) of the Andhra Pradesh General Sales Tax Act, 1957 and are not merely works contract as defined in clause (t) thereof.
- 6. The Appellant submits that similar view has been taken by the Supreme Court in the case of State of Andhra Pradesh Vs. Kone Elevators (India) Ltd. [2005] 140 STC 0022 (SC), wherein it has been held that a contract for construction and supply of a lift is a sale contract and not a works contract. The relevant tests laid down in the said decision are reproduced below:
 - 5. It can be treated as well-settled that there is no standard formula by which one can distinguish a "contract for sale" from a "works contract". The question is largely one of fact depending upon the terms of the contract including the nature of the obligations to be discharged thereunder and the surrounding circumstances. If the intention is to transfer for a price a chattel in which the transferee

had no previous property, then the contract is a contract for sale. Ultimately, the true effect of an accretion made pursuant to a contract has to be judged not by artificial rules but from the intention of the parties to the contract. In a "contract of sale", the main object is the transfer of property and delivery of possession of the property, whereas the main object in a "contract for work" is not the transfer of the property but it is one for work and labour. Another test often to be applied to is: when and how the property of the dealer in such a transaction passes to the customer: is it by transfer at the time of delivery of the finished article as a chattel or by accession during the procession of work on fusion to the movable property of the customer? If it is the former, it is a "sale"; if it is the latter, it is a "works contract". Therefore, in judging whether the contract is for a "sale" or for "work and labour", the essence of the contract or the reality of the transaction as a whole has to be taken into consideration. The predominant object of the contract, the circumstances of the case and the custom of the trade provides a guide in deciding whether transaction is a "sale" or a "works contract". Essentially, the question is of interpretation of the "contract". It is settled law that the substance and not the form of the contract is material in determining the nature of transaction. No definite rule can be formulated to determine the question as to whether a particular given contract is a contract for sale of goods or is a works contract. Ultimately, the terms of a given contract would be determinative of the nature of the transaction, whether it is a"sale" or a "works contract"

7. The Appellant therefore have to submit that the transaction is essentially a transaction for sale of immoveable property and the relationship between the Appellants and the prospective owner is that of seller & buyer of an immoveable property. We submit that the said proposition is not altered even in cases where the set of co-terminus agreements are entered into.

- 8. The Appellant submits levy of service tax requires that there should be some rendition of service. In the instant case, there is a sale of immoveable property and therefore the provisions of the service tax law do not apply at all.
- 9. The Appellant submits that view that the builders are not liable for service tax is confirmed by the Ministry of Finance vide its letter number F. No. 332/35/2006-TRU, dated 1st August 2006; wherein it is acknowledged that the relationship between a builder and the purchaser is not that of a "service provider" and "service recipient"

In substance also, the transaction is a sale of immoveable property

- 10. The Appellant submits that it is an accepted principle that before characterizing a transaction, one has to carefully examine the exact legal nature of the transaction and other material facts. Not only the form but also the substance of transaction must be duly taken into account. While taking a view, both the form and substance of the transaction are to be taken into account. The guiding principle is to identify the essential features of the transaction. The method of charging does not in itself determine whether the service provided is a single service or multiple services.
- 11. Further, continuous to the above in the following cases it has been held that substance of the transaction prevails over the form:
 - Venus Jewel Vs. Commr of S.T. -I, Mumbai 2012 (285) E.L.T.
 167 (Guj.)
 - BhootpurvaSainik Society Vs. Commr of C. EX. & S.T., Allahabad 2012 (25) S.T.R. 39 (Tri. Del.)

¹CBEC Letter (F. No. B14/2006-TRU) dated 19/04/2006.

Commr. OF S.T., Bangalore Vs. Karnataka State Beverages
 Corp.Ltd. 2011 (24) S.T.R. 405 (Kar.)

Even in commercial& legal parlance, the transactions are not in the nature of the Works Contract Services

- 12. The Appellant submits that when one looks at the substance of the transaction in the fact matrix as explained earlier, the issue is crystal clear, the essential feature of the transaction is that the Appellants sell immoveable properties. That being the case, the only place where the tax can be examined is under the Explanation to Section 65(105)(zzzh) as a deemed service and not under Section 65(105)(zzzza).
- 13. The Appellants submit that the activity of construction is for self and as a part of the obligation to deliver a developed immoveable property. Notwithstanding the same, even if it is presumed that the transaction contains elements of works contract services as alleged, the same are subsidiary and do not lend the essential characteristic to the transaction. For example, the Buyer has little wherewithal of the quality, quantity, brand or the price of most of the building materials used. Similarly, the Buyer is not concerned with the extent to which the labour or the services are required for the purpose of the completion of the unit. For both the Appellant as well as the Buyer, the linkage with works contracts is very remote and laborious.
- 14. The Appellant submits that from the above clarifications and distinctions, it is more than evident that commercially and legally, the transaction does not represent the characteristics required of the alleged categories of taxable services.

15. The Appellant submit that in a taxing statute words which are not technical expressions or words of art, but are words of everyday use, must be understood and given a meaning, not in their technical or scientific sense, but in a sense as understood in common parlance i.e. "that sense which people conversant with the subject-matter with which the statute is dealing, would attribute to it". Such words must be understood in their 'popular sense'. The particular terms used by the legislature in the denomination of articles are to be understood according to the common, commercial understanding of those terms used and not in their scientific and technical sense "for the legislature does not suppose our merchants to be naturalists or geologists or botanists". This is referred to as the common parlance test2.

- 16. The Appellant submits that based on the above common parlance test, we have to submit that in common parlance, no one would treat us as a works contractor but would consider us as sellers of immoveable properties and therefore, the transaction cannot be classified as Works Contract Services. For the said purpose, we rely on the following decisions:
 - The expression "fish" is not wide enough to include prawns since If a man were to ask for fish in the market and if prawn is provided or in the vice versa, he would not accept the same3
 - ii. Steam generated from water cannot be considered as chemical in common parlance4

²Mukesh Kumar Aggarwal & Co vs. State of Madhya Pradesh 2004 (178) ELT 3 (SC) Commissioner of Customs vs. Edhayam Frozen Foods 2008 (230) ELT 225 (Mad HC)

17. The Appellants therefore submit that the essence of the transaction is not the same as alleged and therefore cannot be made liable for payment of service tax under the said categories of taxable services. The Appellants therefore submit that since the transaction in substance is that of sale of immoveable property and not one of construction, the same is not liable for payment of service tax.

In Re: The transaction of sale of immoveable property is not a works contract at all

- 18. The Appellants have to submit that service tax is levied on a selective approach. The service tax is demanded under the category of "Works Contract Services". However, the Order in Original has no detailed analysis of why the alleged transaction constitutes a works contract.
- 19. The Appellant submits that it is a settled proposition in law that a works contract is a contract wherein the contractor works upon a property owned by the client and while performing the work transfers the ownership of materials to the client.
- 20. The Appellant submits that Whether the contracts for sale of immoveable properties can be considered as works contracts or not is right now an issue pending before the Supreme Court since the decision in the case of K Raheja Development Corporation v State of Karnataka 2005-TIOL-77-SC-CT has been doubted by the Supreme Court and the matter has been referred to a Larger Bench⁵.

araka 2008 (12) $1R257 ($C)

⁵ Larsen & Toubro Ltd. Vs. State of Karnataka 2008 (12) STR 257 (SC)

21. The Appellant further submits, the transaction cannot be covered under the category of "Works Contract Services" since the activity is not specifically listed in the definition set.

22. The Appellant submits that the relevant definition sets are reproduced below for ease of reference:

Paxable	Tayohla carries magna cutt coming il 1
Service	Taxable service means any service provided or to be defined	provided to any person, by any other person in relation to the u/s	execution of a works contract, excluding works contract in 65(105)(z	respect of roads, airports, railways, transport terminals, bridges, tunnels and dams.
zzza) a	Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-clause, "works contract" means a contract wherein,—
	(i) transfer of property in goods involved in the execution p	of such contract is leviable to tax as sale of goods, and
е	(ii) such contract is for the purposes of carrying out,—
	(a) erection, commissioning or installation of plant, above definition sets, it is evident that there are twin conditions to consider a transaction as a works contract under the provisions of the service tax law. The first condition is that transfer of property in goods involved in the execution of such contract is leviable to tax as sale of goods and the second condition is that the contract is for specific purposes, which inter alia includes construction of a new residential complex or a part thereof

- 23. The Appellants have to submit that the impugned Order does not demonstrate in reasonable detail the satisfaction of either of the two conditions.
- 24. The Appellant submits that first condition for treating a transaction as works contract is that the transfer of property in goods involved in the execution of such contract is leviable to tax as sale of goods. Neither the SCN nor the OIO at any point of time, refer to this vital condition nor is there any demonstration of how this condition is satisfied.
- 25. The Appellants have to submit that though they are paying sales tax on the agreement for construction, the mere act of paying the sales tax does not demonstrate that the sales tax was actually leviable and the condition of works contract requires that the sales tax was actually leviable. As stated earlier, the issue regarding the applicability of sales tax on such transactions is pending before the Supreme Court.
- 26. The Appellants have to further submit that the role played by them is much wider than that of mere construction. We typically undertakes numerous activities like
 - Evaluation/Acquisition of a Site
 - Removal of Encumbrances

Demolition

- Layout Planning & Approval
- Purchase of Additional TDR
- Construction
- Sale
- Possession & Maintenance
- Society Formation & Handing over
- 27. The Appellant submits that all the above steps are performed by the Appellants for self and are not performed specific for any buyer or prospective buyer. In fact, the approval of the standard layout is obtained by the Appellants without any consultation with the buyers and much before the buyer even knows the Appellants.
- 28. The Appellants therefore have to submit that merely entering to coterminus agreements in case of financing requirements do not change the substance of the transaction to that of provision of works contract services.
- 29. Further, the Supreme Court judgment of K Raheja Development Corporation v State of Karnataka 2005-TIOL-77-SC-CT, which is the sole basis for treating the transaction as works contract was rendered in the context of works contract tax. Under the Karnataka GST, the definition of works contract was specifically including development contracts, which is not the case with the service tax law, which includes only construction contracts. Further, the scope of development contracts is much wider than that of construction contracts and construction is just one of the responsibilities of the said contract.

In Re: Individual bungalows cannot be considered as residential complex and demand of service tax not sustainable

30. Appellant submits that in the case between Commissioner Vs. Macro Marvel Projects Pvt. Ltd. 2012 (25) S.T.R. J154 S.C it was held by Hon'ble Supreme Court as – "The Appellate Tribunal in its impugned order had held that the appellants constructed individual residential houses, each being a residential unit, which fact is also clear from photographs. The law makers did not want construction of individual residential units to be subject to levy of Service tax. Appellant's plea that, from 1-6-2007, impugned activity can be covered under Works Contracts service, not acceptable. Works Contract service includes residential complex and not individual residential units."

31. The Appellant submits that the contention of Ld. Commissioner(Appeals) vide Para 8.5 is extracted here for ready reference.

"Moreover, it was observed by the Honorable Tribunal in its decision vide last three lines of para 2 in the case of Macro Marvel Projects Ltd. Vs. CST, Chennai – 2008 (12) STR 603 (Tri-Chennai) that "These observations of ours with reference to 'Works Contracts' have been occasioned by certain specific grounds of this appeal and the same are not intended to be binding precedent for the future". Therefore, the case law relied by the appellants is not useful to them."

32. The Appellant submit Ld. Commissioner(Appeals) alleged that the judgment given in the case of Macro Marvel Projects Pvt. Ltd is not the binding precedent hence cannot be reliable. The Hon'ble Tribunal has already considered the above argument in the case of A.S. Sikarwar. The

Ld. Department representative has taken the stand (Para 3 of judgment). The Hon'ble Tribunal has not considered that argument. In the A.S. Sikarwar Vs. CCE, Indore 2012 (28) S.T.R 479 (Tri-Del) wherein they have built 15 independent housesit was held as under-

"We further note that Revenue being aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal in the said matter had filed appeal with the Hon'ble Supreme Court and the Hon'ble Supreme Court has dismissed the appeal filed as reported at 2012 (25) J514 (SC). So we consider that this matter is no longer res integra and service tax can be demanded under section 65(105)(zzzh) only if the building concerned has more than 12 residential units in the building and such levy will not apply in cases where in one compound has many buildings, each having not more than 12 residential units. Therefore, we set aside the impugned order and allow the appeal."

Therefore, even in the present case where "Niligiri Homes" are independent houses it cannot be said that there has been construction of complex and hence all amounts paid by them ought to be refunded to the appellant and there is no question of paying any further service tax to the Government. Therefore the allegation of the Ld. Commissioner (Appeals) vide para 8.5 is not sustainable.

33. Appellant submits that in the case of Arihant Constructions Vs. CCE, Jaipur that 2012 (25) taxmann.com 540 (New Delhi-CESTAT) they constructed several quarters for Kendriya Vidyalaya. These residential quarters were distributed in different buildings in the same compound.
None of the buildings had more than 12 flats in each building. In view of the Macro Marvel Projects Ltd. the Hon'ble Tribunal held that –

"We find that the explanation pointed out by the AR has nothing to do with the dispute in hand because that explanation defines 'residential unit' and the definition in dispute is that of 'residential complex'. The explanation can mean only that the building should have 12 residential units. So the explanation is not for interpreting the meaning of 'residential complex'. Since the Hon. Supreme court has already confirmed the interpretation in favour of the appellant, we find it proper to waive the requirement of pre-deposit of dues arising from the impugned order and stay collection of such dues during the pendency of the appeal."

In Re: Land Development neither "construction of complex service" nor "works contract service"

- 34. The impugned order has included the amounts received land development in the "construction of complex service" upto 30.06.2007 and under "works contract service" from 01.06.2007. In this regard it is submitted that the land was acquired by the Appellant outright and the same was developed into a layout at its own cost and has obtained the completion certificate for the same and there after the agreement to sell a house on such developed layout. The cost of such development was recovered from the buyer, such recovery is not for proving any service at all.
- 35. Further such activity of development is not covered under the definition of construction of complex since the activity was to make the land in to equal level, make roads, sewage line, electrical pole etc. which cannot be considered as residential complex and hence the liability under both "construction of complex service" and "works contract service" fails.

In Re: Construction of Residential complex for "Personal Use"

36. Without prejudice to the foregoing, assuming but not admitting the same is covered under the tax net. The term "Construction of Complex" is defined under section 65 (30a) as under

(30a) "construction of complex" means —

- (a) construction of a new residential complex or a part thereof;
- (b) completion and finishing services in relation to residential complex such as glazing, plastering, painting, floor and wall tiling, wall covering and wall papering, wood and metal joinery and carpentry, fencing and railing, construction of swimming pools, acoustic applications or fittings and other similar services; or

(c)repair, alteration, renovation or restoration of, or similar services in relation to, residential complex

- 37. Without prejudice to the foregoing, Appellant submits that the construction service of the semi-finished flat is provided for the owner of the semi-finished flat/customer, who in turn used such flat for his personal use.
- 38. The Appellant submits that it has been specifically clarified vide board Circular No. 108/2/2009-S.T., dated 29-1-2009 that the construction for personal use of the customer falls within the ambit of exclusion portion of the definition of the "residential complex" as defined u/s 65(91a) of the Finance Ac, 1994 and accordingly no service tax is payable on such transaction.

Relevant extract

"...Further, if the ultimate owner enters into a contract for construction of a residential complex with a promoter/builder/developer, who himself provides service of design, planning and construction; and after such construction the ultimate owner receives such property for his personal use, then such activity would not be subjected to service tax, because this case would fall under the exclusion provided in the definition of 'residential complex'..."

- 39. The Appellant wishes to highlight that neither in the definition nor in the clarification, there is any mention that the entire complex should be used by one person for his or her residence to be eligible for the exemption. The exemption would be available if the sole condition is satisfied i.e. personal use. Hence the allegation of the Ld. Commissioner (Appeals) vide Para 7.2 of the impugned order has to set aside.
- 40. The Appellant submits the preamble of the referred Circular for understanding what issue exactly the board wanted to clarify. The relevant part of the said circular (para 1) is extracted hereunder for ready reference.
 - "....Doubts have arisen regarding the applicability of service tax in a case where developer/builder/promoter enters into an agreement, with the ultimate owner for selling a dwelling unit in a residential complex at any stage of construction (or even prior to that) and who makes construction linked payment..." (Para 1)
- 41. The Appellant submits that from the above extract, it is clear that the subject matter of the referred circular is to clarify the taxability in transaction of dwelling unit in a residential complex by a developer. Therefore the clarification aims at clarifying exemption of residential unit and not the residential complex as alleged in the notice.
- 42. The Appellant submits that it is important to consider what arguments are considered by board for providing this clarification. The relevant part as applicable in the context has been extracted as under for ready reference.

- "...It has also been argued that even if it is taken that service is provided to the customer, a single residential unit bought by the individual customer would not fall in the definition of 'residential complex' as defined for the purposes of levy of service tax and hence construction of it would not attract service tax..." (Para 2)
- 43. The Appellant submits that the argument is in context of single residential unit bought by the individual customer and not the transaction of residential complex. The clarification has been provided based on the examination of the above argument among others. Hence the allegation of the Ld. Commissioner (Appeals) vide Para 7.2 of the impugned order is against to clarification given has to set aside. It is settled law that officers of the department should not argue against their own Circulars. In this regard wishes to rely on Chandras Chemical Industries Pvt. LtdVsCollr. Of C. Ex., Calcutta 2000 (122) E.L.T 268 (Tribunal) it was held that "We also take note of the fact that the Hon'ble Supreme Court has laid down in a number of decisions that the Excise Authorities cannot be heard to argue against the Circular issued by the Board and it is not open to them to take a different view than the one taken by the Board in the Circular"
- 44. The Appellant submits the final clarification was provided by the board based on the preamble and the arguments. The relevant portion of the circular is provided here under for the ready reference.
 - "... The matter has been examined by the Board. Generally, the initial agreement between the promoters/builders/developers and the ultimate owner is in the nature of 'agreement to sell'. Such a case, as per the provisions of the Transfer of Property Act, does not by itself create any interest in or charge on such property. The property remains under the seller ownership of the lin the instant the case, promoters/builders/developers). It is only after the completion of the construction and full payment of the agreed sum that a sale deed is executed and only then the ownership of the property gets transferred to the ultimate owner. Therefore, any service provided by such seller in connection with the construction of residential complex till the execution of such sale deed would be in the nature of 'self-service' and consequently would not attract service tax. Further, if the ultimate owner enters into a contract for construction of a residential complex with a promoter/builder/developer, who himself provides service of design, planning and construction; and after such construction the ultimate owner receives such property for his personal use, then such activity would not be subjected to service tax, because this case would fall under the exclusion provided in the definition of 'residential complex'. However, in both these situations, if services of any person like contractor, designer or a similar service provider are received, then such a person would be liable to pay service tax..." (Para 3)

- 45. The Appellant submits that the clarification provided above is that in the under mentioned two scenario service tax is not payable.
 - a. For service provided until the sale deed has been executed to the ultimate owner.
 - b. For service provided by entering into construction agreement with such ultimate owner, who receives the constructed flat for his personal use.

- 46. The Appellant submits that it is exactly the facts in their case. The first clarification pertains to consideration received for construction in the sale deed portion. The second clarification pertains to construction in the construction agreement portion. Therefore this clarification is applicable to them ibid.
- 47. The Appellant submitted that department has very narrowly interpreted the provision without much application of mind and has concluded that if the entire complex is put to personal use by a single person, then it is excluded. The circular or the definition does not give any meaning as to personal use by a single person. In fact it is very clear that the very reason for issuance of the circular is to clarify the applicability of residential unit and not the residential complex.
- 48. Where an exemption is granted through Circular No. 108/2/2009-S.T., dated 29-1-2009, the same cannot be denied on unreasonable grounds and illogical interpretation as above. In the definition "complex which is constructed by a person directly engaging any other person for designing or planning of the layout, and the construction of such complex is intended for personal use as residence by such person." Since the reference is "constructed by a person" in the definition, it cannot be interpreted as "complex which is constructed by ONE person....." similar the reference "personal use as residence by such person" also cannot be interpreted as "personal use by ONE persons" Such interpretation would be totally against the principles of interpretation of law and also highly illogical.
- 49. Appellant submits that with the above exclusion, no service tax is payable at all for the consideration pertaining to construction service provided for its customer and accordingly the SCN is void abinitio.

50. Without prejudice to the foregoing, Appellant further submits that non-taxability of the construction provided for an individual customer intended for his personal was also clarified by TRU vide its letter dated F. No. B1/6/2005-TRU, dated 27-7-2005 during the introduction of the levy, therefore the service tax is not payable on such consideration from abinitio. Relevant Extract is reproduced below:

"13.4 However, residential complex having only 12 or less residential units would not be taxable. Similarly, residential complex constructed by an individual, which is intended for personal use as residence and is constructed by directly availing services of a construction service provider, is also not covered under the scope of the service tax and not taxable"

51. Without prejudice to the foregoing, Appellant further submits that the board in between had clarified in an indicative manner that the personal use of a residential complex is not liable for service tax in the Circular F. No. 332/35/2006-TRU, dated 1-8-2006.

Again will service tax be Commercial complex does not fall applicable on the same, in within the scope of "residential case he constructs commercial complex intended for personal use". complex for himself for putting Hence, service provided it on rent or sale? construction of commercial complex is leviable to service tax. Will the construction Clarified vide F. No. B1/6/ 2005-TRU, individual housedated 27-7-2005, or that residential of an individual fall in purview of service tax, is so, whose responsibility is there for payment?

bungalow meant for residence complex constructed by an individual, intended for personal residence and constructed by directly availing services of a construction service provider, is not liable to service tax.

- 52. Without prejudice to the foregoing, assuming but not admitting that when the entire residential complex is meant for a person for his personal use, then such complex falls under excluded category is to be considered as interpreted by the impugned order, then the entire section 65(91a) gets defeated as in case complex belonging to single person there would be nothing called as a common area, common water supply etc, the word "common" would be used only in case on multiple owner and not in case of single owner, therefore the interpretation of the department is meaningless.
- 53. Without prejudice to the foregoing, Appellant further submits the various decision that has been rendered relying on the Circular 108 are as under
 - a. M/s Classic Promoters and Developers, M/s Classic Properties v/s CCE Mangalore 2009-TIOL-1106-CESTAT-Bang,

In re: Liability on Builders with effective from 01.07.2010:

- 54. Further the Appellant submits that in the Finance Bill, 2010 there was an explanation added to the Section 65(105)(zzzh) of the Act where the taxable service construction of residential complex is defined. This was the first time the deeming fiction of the service provided by the Builder was bought into service tax net (prior to this only the contractors were taxable). In this respect, in the clarification issued by the TRU vide D.O.F No. 334/1/2010-TRU dated 26.02.2010 it was stated that in order to bring parity in the tax treatment among different practices, the said explanation of the same being prospective and also clarifies that the transaction between the builder and buyer of the flat is not taxable until the assent was given to the bill.
- 55. The Appellant submits that the Ld. Commissioner (Appeals) vide para 7.1 alleged that since the sale deed was not executed for total consideration, Appellant is not covered by the exclusion given under the Board Circular No. 108/102/2009-ST dated 29.01.2009. It is one of the modus operandi in construction industry to split full consideration as agreed in agreement of sale towards sale deed and construction agreement. So that customer will get the finance for the house from the Banks by furnishing semi constructed flat as security. Ultimate intention is to sell the residential unit to the final customer. Because Bankers are insisting the registered sale deeds for semi constructed flats to disburse the loans in order to ensure guaranteed completion of project by builders. Otherwise there is no need for us to enter in to the separate construction agreement with customers.

- 56. The Appellant submits that in continuation to above, TRU vide D.O.F No. 334/1/2010-TRU dated 26.02.2010 listed out the different patterns adapted by the builder. One among the other is 'Sale of Undivided Portion of The Land' and parallel execution of 'Construction Agreement' under which the obligations of the promoter to get property constructed and that of the buyer to pay the required consideration are incorporated. The above Circular states that to bring parity in the tax treatment among different practices explanation has been inserted. From the above it is clear that even if the builder executes the construction through the construction agreement no service tax will apply for the builder till insertion of the explanation. Therefore confirmation of the service tax liability on the basis of sale deed was executed for the part of the consideration is not sustainable.
- 57. Further Notification No. 36/2010-ST dated 28.06.2010 and Circular No. D.O.F. 334/03/2010-TRU dated 01.07.2010 exempts the advances received prior to 01.07.2010, this itself indicates that the liability of service tax has been triggered for the construction service provided after 01.07.2010 and not prior to that, hence there is no liability of service tax during the period of the subject notice.
- 58. Without prejudice to the foregoing, Appellant submits that Trade notice F.NoVGN(30)80/Trade Notice/10/Pune dated 15.02.2011 issued by Pune

Commissionerate, has specifically clarified that no service tax is payable by the builder prior to 01.07.2010 and amounts received prior to that is also exempted. Since the issue is prior to such date the same has to be set aside.

59 Appellant further submits that the Honorable Tribunal of Bangalore in the case of Mohtisham Complexes (P) Ltd. vs Commissioner of C. Ex., Mangalore 2011 (021) STR 0551 Tri.-Bang stating that the explanation inserted to Section 65(105)(zzzh) from 01.07.2010 is prospective in nature and not retrospective. The relevant extract of the subject case is reproduced here under:

"In other words, the present case is covered by the situation envisaged in the main part of the Explanation, thereby meaning that the appellant as a builder cannot be deemed to be service provider vis-a-vis prospective buyers of the buildings. The deeming provision would be applicable only from 1-7-2010. Our attention, has also been taken to the texts of certain other Explanations figuring under Section 65(105). In some of these Explanations, there is an express mention of retrospective effect. Therefore, there appears to be substance in the learned counsel's argument that the deeming provision contained in the explanation added to Section 65(105)(zzq) and (zzzh) of the Finance Act, 1994 will have only prospective effect from 1-7-2010. Apparently, prior to this date, a builder cannot be deemed to be service provider providing any service in relation to industrial/commercial or residential complex to the ultimate buyers of the property. Admittedly, the entire dispute in the present case lies prior to 1-7-2010. The appellant has made out prima facie case against the impugned demand of service tax and the connected penalty.

- 60. The Appellant submits from the above, it is evident that there shall be no liability for the receipts received for the period prior to 01.07.10.
- 61. The Appellant submits construction activity carried on by the builders to the prospective buyers by way of entering into agreement for sale is not a taxable service in view of the Honorable Gauhati High Court judgment in the case of Magus Construction Pvt.Ltd vs Union of India, 2008 (011) STR 0225 (Gau) wherein it was held as follows:

"A combined reading of the various clauses of the agreement for sale makes it abundantly clear that the transaction between the petitioners, on the one hand, and the flat purchaser, on the other, is that of purchase and sale of premises and not for carrying out any constructional activities on behalf of the prospective buyers. What the petitioner-company sells is, thus, the flat/premises and the entire transaction is nothing, but sale and purchase of immovable property. The flat purchasers are entitled to seek specific performance of the contract and there is an obligation, on the part of the petitioner-company, to refund any part of money received together with interest if possession is not handed over to the prospective buyers in time. There is also an obligation, on the part of the petitioner-company, to register sale deeds and agreements. Even the registering authorities concerned treat these documents as agreements for sale/purchase of flats/premises inasmuch as the consideration is for sale and not for carrying out constructional activities. Stamp duty is, therefore, levied on the sale consideration."

- 62. Without prejudice to the foregoing, the Appellant submits that the subject activity is not a taxable service on the following principles laid down in the aforesaid case.
 - (i) Para 29 states that one can safely define "service" as an act of helpful activity, an act of doing something useful, rendering assistance or help. Service does not involve supply of goods; "service" rather connotes transformation of use/user of goods as a result of voluntary intervention of "service provider" and is an intangible commodity in the form of human effort. To have "service", there must be a "service provider" rendering services to some other person(s), who shall be recipient of such "service".
 - (ii) Para 30 states that under the Finance Act, 1994, "service tax" is levied on "taxable service" only and not on "service provider". A "service provider" is only a means for deposit of the "service tax" to the credit of the Central Government. Although the term "service receiver" has not been defined in the Finance Act, 1994, the "service receiver" is a person, who receives or avails the services provided by a "service provider".
 - (iii) Para 31 states that any part of constructional activity for construction of building, which is carried out by the petitioner-company, is not a "service" rendered to anyone, but an activity, which is carried out by the petitioner-company, for its own self. Since the very concept of rendering of "service" implies two entities, one, who renders the "service", and the other, who is recipient thereof, it becomes transparent that an activity carried on by a person for himself or for his own benefit, cannot be termed as "service" rendered.

63. The Appellant further submits that in the case of G.ChandrababuvsCCEx, Cus. & ST., Thiruvananthapuram, 2011 (024) STR 0492 (Tri-Bang), it was held as follows;

"It is very clear from the records that the appellants were the owners of the land and developed the properties and sold the flats to the prospective buyers by entering into different agreements. It is unconceivable that just because the appellant received advances from the prospective buyers, the sale could not be considered as sale and would fall under services."

- 64. The Appellant further submits that in the case of Jetlite (India) Ltd v CCEx, New Delhi, 2011 (21) STR 119 (Tri-Del), it was held that the entries relating to construction service apply to builders engaged in construction activities for others and not for themselves who merely sell immovable properties to the customers by engaging themselves in the development and/or construction activity.
- 65. The Appellant submits that the activity undertaken by them will fall within the scope of the taxable service only from 01/07/2010 and not prior to that date. Further to support this view, the Appellants submits that similar view is expressed by PUNE Commissionerate vide para 4(a) of Circular No: 1/2011, dated 15/2/2011 as follows

"Where services of construction of Residential Complex were rendered prior to 1-7-2010 no Service Tax is leviable in terms of para 3 of Boards Circular number 108/02/2009-S.T., dated 29-1-2009. The Service of Construction of Residential Complex would attract service tax from 1-7-2010. Despite no service tax liability, if any amount has been collected by the builder as "Service Tax" for Services rendered prior to

1-7-2010, the same is required to be deposited by the builder to the Service tax department. Builder cannot retain the amount collected as Service Tax."

66. The Appellant further submits that CBEC recently vide Circular No:151/2/2012 dated 10/02/2012, while clarifying the applicability of service tax in light of various business models has opined that the activity of builder/developer prior to 01/07/2010 is not taxable. The same is extracted here for ready reference.

(A) Taxability of the construction service:

- (i) For the period prior to 1-7-2010: construction service provided by the builder/developer will not be taxable, in terms of Board's Circular No. 108/2/2009-S.T., dated 29-1-2009 [2009 (13) S.T.R. C33]. The allegation of the Ld. Respondent vide para No. 30.7 that there is no separate construction agreement has entered there is no self-service involved is not tenable since the above Circular considered various business models adapted by the builder hence the allegations has to be set aside.
- 67. The Appellant further submits that in the case of Mohtisham Complexes (P) Ltd. vs Commissioner of C. Ex., Mangalore 2011 (021) STR 0551 Tri.-Bang stating that the explanation inserted to Section 65(105)(zzzh) from 01.07.2010 is prospective in nature and not retrospective. The relevant extracts are reproduced hereunder:

"In other words, the present case is covered by the situation envisaged in the main part of the Explanation, thereby meaning that the appellant as a builder cannot be deemed to be service provider vis-a-vis prospective buyers of the buildings. The deeming provision would be applicable only from 1-7-2010. Our attention, has also been taken to the texts of certain other Explanations figuring under Section 65(105). In some of these Explanations, there is an express mention of retrospective effect. Therefore, there appears to be substance in the learned counsel's argument that the deeming provision contained in the explanation added to Section 65(105)(zzq) and (zzzh) of the Finance Act, 1994 will have only prospective effect from 1-7-2010. Apparently, prior to this date, a builder cannot be deemed to be service provider providing any service in relation to industrial/commercial or residential complex to the ultimate buyers of the property. Admittedly, the entire dispute in the present case lies prior to 1-7-2010. The appellant has made out prima facie case against the impugned demand of service tax and the connected penalty."

68. The Appellant further submits that in the case of M/s Bairathi Developers Pvt Ltd vs CCE, Jaipur, 2011-TIOL-1638-CESTAT-Del, it was held that the activity of builder/developer/promoter will not be a taxable service prior to 01/07/2010. The relevant extracts are reproduced below.

"We find that the Hon'bleGauhati High Court in the case of Magus Construction Pvt. Ltd. (supra) has clearly held that this activity is not a service and the amount received by a developer/builder from the buyers against flat purchase agreement is a consideration for sale of flats and not for the purpose of obtaining any service. It is only by Finance Act, 2010 that an Explanation was added to Section 65(105)(zzzh) which provided that for the purpose of this sub-clause, construction of a complex, which is intended for sale, wholly or partly, by a builder or any person authorised by the builder before, during or after construction (except in cases for which no sum is received from or on behalf of the prospective buyer by the builder or a person authorised by the builder before the grant of completion certificate by the authority competent to issue such certificate under any law for the time being in force) shall be deemed to be service provided by the builder to the buyer. The validity of this explanation has been upheld by the Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court in its judgement in the case of G.S. Promoters (supra). In view of this, we are of prima facie view that prior to this amendment, 16.06.2005, when this Explanation to Section 65(105) (zzzh) was not there, the activity of construction of flats by the builder/developer for various prospective buyer against the flat agreement entered into by them could not be called the service of construction of residential complexes." (Para 5)

- 69. The Appellant submits that recently Hon'ble Tribunals in various cases held that explanation introduced vide Finance Act, 2010 is prospective and prior to 01.07.2010 Builder is not liable for the service tax. Cases laws are

In Re: Time Bar

70. The Appellant submits that the period covered in the First show cause notice is Jan 2010 to December 2010. The due date for filing the ST-3 Returns for the period October 2009 to March 2010 is 25th of April 2010.

Ohd.

Since the subject show cause notices are periodical notices, notice should be issued within one year from the relevant date as prescribed under Section 73(1) of the Finance Act, 1994. The due date for issuing show cause notice for the quarter Jan 2010 to March 2010 is 25th of April 2011.

71. The Appellant submits that sub section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994 reads as under

"Where any service tax has not been levied or paid or has been short—levied or short paid or erroneously refunded, the Central Excise Officer may, within one year from the relevant date, serve notice on the person chargeable with the service tax which has not been levied or paid or which has been short levied or short paid or the person to whom such tax refund has erroneously been made, requiring him to show cause why he should not pay the amount specified in the notice."

- 72. The Appellant submits that "relevant date" means which has been defined in subsection (6) of section 73 of Finance Act, 1994 as follows.
 - (i) in the case of taxable service in respect of which service tax has not been levied or paid or has been short-levied or short-paid
 - (a) where under the rules made under this Chapter, a periodical return, showing particulars of service tax paid during the period to which the said return relates, is to be filed by an assessee, the date on which such return is so filed;
 - (b) where no periodical return as aforesaid is filed, the last date on which such return is to be filed under the said rules;

- (c) in any other case, the date on which the service tax is to be paid under this Chapter or the rules made thereunder;
- (ii) in a case where the service tax is provisionally assessed under this Chapter or the rules made thereunder, the date of adjustment of the service tax after the final assessment thereof;
- (iii) in a case where any sum, relating to service tax, has erroneously been refunded, the date of such refund.
- 73. The Appellant submits that ST-3 Returns for the period October 2009 to March 2010 has not been filed hence relevant date should be reckoned from the due date to file the returns. Hence the show cause notice for the period Jan 2010 to March 2010 could have been issued by 25th April 2010. The show cause notice has been issued in May 2011 hence for the quarter Jan 2010 to March 2010 the notice has been time barred.
- 74. The Appellant submits that admittedly the show casue notice is periodical show casue notice. And it is settled position of the law that for the periodical show casue notices the allegation of suppression of facts are not sustainable. In this regard Appellant wishes to rely on Nizam Sugar Factory Vs Collector 2006 (197) E.L.T 465 SC "Allegation of suppression of facts against the Appellant cannot be sustained. When the first SCN was issued all the relevant facts were in the knowledge of the authorities. Later on, while issuing the second and third show cause notices the same or similar facts could not be taken as suppression of facts on the part of the assessee as these facts were already in the knowledge of the authorities. We agree with the view taken in the aforesaid judgments and respectfully following the same, hold that there was no suppression of facts on the part of the assessee or Appellant. Therefore the allegation of the suppression of the facts vide Para 10 of the impugned order in appeal has to be set aside.

In Re: Interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994

- 75. Without prejudice to the foregoing, Appellant submits that when service tax itself is not payable, the question of interest and penalty does not arise.
- 76. Appellant further submits that it is a natural corollary that when the principal is not payable there can be no question of paying any interest as held by the Supreme Court in Prathiba Processors Vs. UOI, 1996 (88) ELT 12 (SC).

In re: Penalty under Section 76 & 77 of the Finance Act, 1994

- 77. The Appellant submits that an amount of service tax Rs. 23,73,124/- is already paid by Cash and Rs. 7000/- paid by the CENVAT Account towards liability of service tax for the period January 2011 to December 2011. The Appellant vide para 34 of the Appeal memo submitted before Ld. Commissioner (Appeals) that there is error in the valuation of service. Taxable service portion is Rs. 5,81,28,289/-.
- 78. The Appellant submits that Ld. Commissioner (Appeals) remanded the matter limited extent of quantification of liability to original adjudicating authority. Since the value of taxable service for the period Jan 2011 to Dec 2011 is Rs. 5,81,28,289/- service tax liability comes around Rs.

23,94,885/-. Therefore there shall not be any question of the penalty under Section 76 of the Finance Act, 1994.

- 79. The Appellant submits that, when the tax itself is not payable, the question of penalty under section 76 does not arise. Further assuming but not admitting, that there was a tax liability as envisaged in SCN as explained in the previous paragraphs, when Appellant were not at all having the intention to evade the service tax and further also there was a basic doubt about the liability of the service tax itself on the construction activity, Appellant is acting in a bona fide belief, that he is not liable to collect and pay service tax, there is no question of penalty under section 76 resorting to the provisions of Section 80 considering it to be a reasonable cause for not collecting and paying service tax.
- 80. The Appellant submits suppression or concealing of information with intent to evade the payment of tax is a requirement for imposing penalty. It is a settled proposition of law that when the assessee acts with a bonafide belief especially when there is doubt as to statute also the law being new and not yet understood by the common public, there cannot be intention of evasion and penalty cannot be levied. In this regard we wish to rely upon the following decisions of Supreme Court.
 - Commissioner of C.Ex., Aurangabad Vs. Pendhakar
 Constructions 2011(23) S.T.R. 75(Tri.-Mum)
 - ii. Hindustan Steel Ltd. V. State of Orissa 1978 (2) ELT (J159) (SC)
 - iii. Akbar BadruddinJaiwani V. Collector 1990 (47) ELT 161(SC)

iv. Tamil Nadu Housing Board V Collector - 1990 (74) ELT 9 (SC)

Therefore on this ground it is requested to drop the penalty proceedings under the provisions of Section 76 of the Finance Act, 1994.

- 81. The Appellant submits that penalty is imposable when the appellant breaches the provision of statute with an intent to defeat the scheme of the Act, when there is a confusion prevalent as to the leviability and the mala fide not established by the department, it would be a fit case for waiver of penalty as held by various tribunals as under
 - a. Vipul Motors (P) Ltd. vs Commissioner of C. Ex., Jaipur-I 2008(009) STR 0220 Tri.-Del
 - b. Commissioner of Service Tax, Daman vsMeghna Cement Depot
 2009 (015) STR 0179 Tri.-Ahmd
- 82. The Appellant submits that in the following two cases, M/s Creative Hotels Pvt. Ltd. Vs CCE, Mumbai (2007) (6) S.T.R (Tri-Mumbai) and M/s Jewel Hotels Pvt Limited Vs CCE, Mumbai-1 (2007) (6) S.T.R 240 (Tri-Mumbai) it was held that "The authorities below have not given any finding as to why penalty is required to be imposed upon them. Only because penalty can be imposed, it is not necessary that in all cases penalty is required to be imposed. In this case I accept the explanation of the appellant and therefore set aside the penalty and allow the appeal."
- 83. The Appellant submits that liability of the service tax on the construction activity is depends on the interpretation of definition of Residential Complex as defined 65(91a) of Finance Act, 1994, Circular No. 108/02/2009-ST dated 29.01.2009, Circular No. D.O.F

334/03/2010-TRU dated10.02.2010 and various judicial pronouncements. It is settled position of the Law that whenever there is any scope for interpretation of the provisions of Finance Act, 1994 there cannot be imposition of Penalties. In this regard Appellant wishes to rely on the following judicial pronouncements.

- a. In the case of Commissioner Of Central Excise, Raipur Vs Ajanta Color Labs 2009 (14) S.T.R 468 (Tri-Del) it was held that "Respectfully following the above decisions, we allow the appeals for the assessee on merits and hold that the portion of the value relating to photography materials would not be included in the levy of service tax. It is a case of interpretation of the statutes and, therefore, extended period of limitation and imposition of penalties would not warrant"
- b. In the case of Ispat Industries Ltd Vs CCE, Raigad 2006 (199)

 E.L.T 509 (Tri-Mumbai) it was held that "Apart from holding that the credit was admissible to the appellants on merits, we also find that the demand raised and confirmed against them is hopelessly barred by limitation. Admittedly, the appellant had reflected the fact of availing the balance 50% credit in the subsequent financial year, in their statutory monthly returns filed with the revenue. This fact is sufficient to reflect knowledge on the part of the revenue about the fact of taking balance 50% credit and is also indicative of the bona fides of the appellant. The appellants having made known to the department, no suppression or mis-statement on their part can be held against them. The issue, no doubt involves bona fide interpretation of provisions of law and failure on the part of the appellants to interpret the said provisions in the way in which the department seeks to interpret them cannot be held against them so as to invoke extended period of limitation. When there is a scope for doubt for interpretation of legal provisions and the entire facts have been placed before the jurisdictional, Central Excise Officer, the appellants cannot be attributed with any suppression or misstatement of facts with intent to evade duty and hence cannot be saddled with demand by invoking the extended period of limitation. As much as the demand has been set aside on merits as also on limitation, there is no justification for imposition of any penalty upon them.

- c. In the case of Haldia Petrochemicals Ltd Vs CCE, Haldia 2006 (197) E.L.T 97 (Tri-Del) it was that the "extended period of limitation cannot be invoked under the proviso to Section 11A(1) of the Central Excise Act, 1944. There is also no case for imposition of penalty, firstly for the reason that the demand of duty is unsustainable and secondly for the reason that the case involves a question of interpretation of law."
- d. In the case of Itel Industries Pvt. Ltd Vs CCE, Calicut 2004 (163)

 E.L.T 219 (Tri-Bang) it was held that "In view of the facts of this case, we do not find any case or cause to invoke the penal liabilities, as we find that the Commissioner has held "It is essentially, a question of interpretation of law as to whether Section 4 or Section 4A would be applicable...." and not sustained the penalty under Section 11AC. We concur with the same.

 Therefore we cannot uphold the Revenue's appeal on the need to restore the penalty under Section 11AC as arrived at by the Original Authority. As regards the penalty under Rules 173Q & 210, we find the Commissioner (Appeals) has not given any finding why he considered the same as correct and legal in Para 8 of the impugned order. Imposition of penalty under Rules 173Q & 210 on matters of interpretation, without specific and valid reasons, is not called for".

On the basis of the above judgments it is clear that whenever due to bonafide interpretation of law service tax not paid penalty is not leviable.

In re: Benefit under Section 80 of the Finance, Act, 1994

- 84. Appellant further submits that under Section 80 of the Finance Act, 1994which reads as under:
 - "Notwithstanding anything contained in the provisions of section 76, section 77 or first proviso to sub-section (1) of section 78 no penalty shall be imposable on the assessee for any failure referred to in the said provisions if the assessee proves that there was reasonable cause for the said failure."
- 85. Appellant submits that it is a undisputed fact that the levy of service tax on Construction of complex service had created lot of confusion and many questions have been raised about the constitutional validity, The following are the significant outcomes/events surrounding the levy of service tax right from date of introduction of this Service:

DATE	PARTICULARS
16.6.2005	Any service provided or to be provided to any person, by any other person, in relation to construction of complex is taxable under sub-clause (zzzh) of section 65(105) of the Finance Act, 1994. Provisions relating to levy of service tax by amending sections 65 and 66 of the Finance Act, 1994 have been made effective from 16th June, 2005.

1.8.2006	Circular F. No. 332/35/2006-TRU, dated 1-8-2006If no other person is engaged for construction work and the builder/promoter/developer undertakes construction work on his own without engaging the services of any other person, then in such cases in the absence of service provider and service recipient relationship, the question of providing taxable service to any person by any other person does not arise
1.6.2007	The Finance Act, 1994 has sought to levy service tax for the first time on certain specified works contracts.
4.1.2008	Circular clarifying that contracts entered into prior to 01.06.07 for providing erection, commissioning or installation and commercial or residential construction service, and service tax has already been paid for part of the payment received under the respective taxable service the classification is not required to be changed.
15.5.2008	Held in the case of Magus Constructions 2008 (11) S.T.R.
	225 (Gau. That in the light of what has been laid down in the catena of decisions referred to above, it becomes clear that the circular, dated August 1, 2006, aforementioned, is binding on the department and this circular makes it more than abundantly clear that when a builder, promoter or developer undertakes construction activity for its own self, then, in such cases, in the absence of relationship of "service provider" and "service recipient", the question of providing "taxable service" to any person by any other person does not arise at all.

St. Associate to the contract of the contract

29.1.2009	Circular No. 108/2/2009-S.T., dated 29-1-2009 clarified that firstly that Where a buyer enters into an agreement to get a fully constructed residential unit, the transaction of sale is completed only after complete construction of the residential unit. Till the completion of the construction activity, the property belongs to the builder or promoter and any service provided by him towards construction is in the nature of self service. Secondly, if the ultimate owner enters into a contract for construction of a residential complex with a promoter/builder/developer, who himself provides service of design, planning and construction and after such construction the ultimate owner receives such property for his personal use, then such activity would not be subjected to service tax, because this case would fall under the exclusion provided in the definition of 'residential complex'.
1.7.2010	In the Finance Act, changes have been made in the construction services, both commercial construction and construction of residential complex, using 'completion certificate' issued by 'competent authority'. Before the issuance of completion certificate if agreement is entered into or any payment is made for sale of complex or apartment in residential complex, service tax will be leviable on such transaction since the builder provides the construction service.
24.8.2010	As regards the classification, with effect from 01.06.2007
	when the new service 'Works Contract' service was made effective, classification of aforesaid services would undergo a change in case of long term contracts even though part of the service was classified under the respective taxable service prior to 01.06.2007. This is because 'works contract' describes the nature of the activity more specifically and, therefore, as per the provisions of section 65A of the Finance Act, 1994, it would be the appropriate classification for the part of the service provided after that date, this circular was contradictory to Circular 98/1/2008 (supra).

Trade Facility No. 1/2011, dated 15-2-2011 issued by Pune Commissionerate stated that Where services of 15.2.2011

Pune Commissionerate stated that Where services of construction of Residential Complex were rendered prior to 1-7-2010 no Service Tax is leviable in terms of para 3 of Boards Circular number 108/02/2009-S.T., dated 29-1-2009.

86. The Appellant submits that they have not paid the service tax on bonafide belief that as per the Circular 108/02/2009-ST dated 29.01.2009 they are not liable to when the construction undertaken for personal use and the also the value of the material is not liable for the service tax on which they have paid. In the case of CCE, Delhi Vs Softalk Lakhotia Infocom (P) Ltd. 2006 (1) S.T.R 24 it was held that "The Revenue is relying upon the provisions of Section 75 of the Act whereas Section 80 of the Act provides that no penalty is imposable in case the assessee explains the reasonable cause for failure to comply with the provisions. In view of the above, I find no infirmity in the impugned order. The appeals are dismissed."

- 87. The Appellant further submits that the above reported case laws or the text of the Section 80 of the Finance Act, 1994 does not speak of proving to the satisfaction of Central Excise Officer regarding the reasonable cause. Therefore from the above it is clear that Appellant is rightly eligible for the benefit under the Section 80 of the Finance Act, 1994.
- 88. The Appellant submits that in so far as Section 80 of the Act is concerned, it overrides provisions of Sections 76 and 77 of the Act and provides that no penalty shall be imposable (assuming but not admitting) even if any one of the said provisions are attracted if the assessee proves that there was reasonable cause for failure stipulated by any of the said provisions.
- 89. The Appellant submits that they have established the reasonable cause for the nonpayment of service tax. Once reasonable cause is established the authority has the discretion to hold that no penalty is imposable. The provision does not say that even upon establishment of reasonable cause, penalty is imposable. The provision only says no penalty is imposable.
- of the Finance Act, 1994 to waive the penalty is an obligation on the authority. It is the duty of the authority to ascertain whether there is any reasonable cause for nonpayment of duty. In the case of KNR Contractors Vs CCE, Thirupathi 2011 (021) 436 (Tri-Bang) it was held that "Perusal of Section 80 of the said Act, undoubtedly discloses that it will have overriding effect on the provisions of Sections 76, 77 & 78, in the sensethat imposition of penalty under any of those provisions is not mechanical exercise by the concerned authority. On the contrary, before proceeding to impose the penalty under any of those provisions of law, the authority is expected to ascertain from the records as to whether the assessee has established that there was reasonable cause for the failure or default committed by the assessee."

- 91. The appellant craves leave to alter, add to and/or amend the aforesaid grounds.
- 92. The appellant wish to be personally heard before any decision is taken in this matter.
