Under instructions from our client M/s.Mehta and Modi Homes, having their head office at 5-4-187/3&4, II Floor, Soham Mansion, M.G.Road, Secunderabad, represented by its Managing Partner Shri Soham Modi S/o Shri Satish Modi, we have to address you as follows:

1. Our client is a builder and developer and they have developed one such project under the name and style of "Silver Oak" Bungalows, situated at Survey No.291, Cherlapalli, Hyderabad - 500 051.

2. You No.1 and 2 had approached our client for purchase of a Bungalow bearing No.231 in the above Venture and accordingly a Booking Form was signed by you on 14.11.2006 and it was agreed for a total sale consideration of Rs.48,85,228/- towards the cost of the plot of land and construction charges for the Bungalow. The above cost includes charges like registration, stamp duty and other expenses. Accordingly, you have made an aggregate payment of Rs.36,88,499/- and towards balance amount including other charges the No.1 of you had issued a cheque bearing No.926560 dated 21.3.2009 for Rs.11,00,000/- drawn on Andhra Bank, Somajiguda Branch, Hyderabad.

3. Our client presented the said cheque through their Banker HDFC Bank Ltd, Lakdikapul, Hyderabad for encashment. But to their utter shock and surprise, the said cheque has been returned with an endorsement "Funds Insufficient" vide Banker's Memo dated 23.3.2009. Our client informed you about the dishonour of cheque and you promised to pay the amount covered under the said cheque within a couple of days but you have failed keep up your promise.

4. You are very well aware that dishonour of cheque for the reason of "Insufficient Funds" is an offence punishable U/s 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act and also amounts to cheating punishable U/s 420 of I.P.C. No.1 of you had issued the cheque with dishonest intention to cause wrongful loss to our client by not maintaining sufficient funds in your account. Thus, committed an offence punishable U/s 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act and U/s 420 of I.P.C. and both of you are liable for punishment according to Law.
