FINAL NOTICE ISSUED TO DR (MRS) C. BABY SAROJINI, MBBS, TUTOR IN PATHOLOGY, SMC, VIJAYAWADA.

Proc.No. 2362/HE2/92.—Dr. (Mrs) C. Baby Sarojini, MBBS, Tutor in Pathology, Siddhartha Medical College, Vijayawada was sanctioned 30 days of Earned Leave from 31-1-92 to 29-2-92 by the Principal, Siddhartha Medical College Vide his Procds. No. SMC/116/E1/92, dated 16-1-92. Instead of rejoining duty, she sent an application to the Principal, S.M.C. requesting for sanction of Extra Ordinary Leave without pay and allowances for a period of One Year to enable her to attend to personal work. when the Principal referred the matter to University of Health Sciences, her previous leave availments were examined in detail and it was found that she availed about 12 months of leave in four spells continuously from 10-4-90 to 31-1-91 including 5 months Extra Ordinary Leave without pay and allowances stating that she was attending to domestic work, Private affairs, settling personal problems family problems etc., Hence, the extra ordinary leave for a period of One year from 1-3-92 requested by her was not sanctioned as the University of Health Sciences expected her to rejoin duty. But even after waiting for a long period of six months in good faith she did not join duty. As such the University of Health Sciences directed her under regd. post with A/D. (Having the name of a care of addressee) Vide Memo No. 2362/HE2/92, dated, 1-9-92 to appear before the Rector immediately or not later than 8-9-92 without fail. Eventhough the Regd. Cover was received by some one on her behalf on 4-9-92 itself, she did not report before the Rector, as directed.

As there was no other alternative the University of Health Sciences appointed an enquiry officer Vide Procds. No. 2362/HE2/92, dated. 19-5-93 to enquire into her unauthorised absence. The enquiry officer framed certain charges against her and communicated them to her under regd.post with A/D, Vide Proc.SMC/4946/E1/93, dated 19-6-93. But the postal authorities returned the cover with remarks "Redirected". So the E.O. understood that the individual in question was not residing at the given address. He mentioned that a previous Regd. Communication that was sent to her Vide SMC/4966/E1/93, dated 26-5-93 directing her to join duty was acknowledged by One Dr.B. Rama Rao (her care of addressee) but no reply was received from her. So, the enquiry officer felt that the individual has not given the address where she can be contacted. Therefore the enquiry officer finalised his report stating that it may be considered that the charge sheet has been duly communicated to her and that she did not choose to submit a reply as she has no reply to submit. He has recommended that final orders as may be considered appropriate may be passed by University of Health Sciences while taking the facts into consideration.

In the circumstances, Dr (Mrs) C. Baby Sarojini, Tutor in Pathology, S.M.C., Vijayawada, who is on unauthorised absence with effect from 1-3-92 (F/N) is directed to report before the Registrar University of Health Sciences, within 15 days from the date of publication of this notice in the A.P. Gazette failing which, her services, will be terminated with effect from 1-3-92 for her unauthorised absence from duty.

FINAL SHOWCAUSE NOTICE ISSUED TO DR.
(MRS) G. VANAJAKSHI, TUTOR IN PHARMACOLOGY, SMC, VIJAYAWADA.

Proc.No. 1468/HE.2/91.-Dr. (Mrs) G. Vanajakshi, MBBS, Tutor in Pharmacology, Siddhartha Medical College, Vijayawada was granted 49 days of Earned Leave from 11-12-90 to 28-1-91 by the Principal, Siddhartha Medical College, Vijayawada. She was sanctioned extension of leave upto 18-4-91 by granting 80 days of Half Pay Leave on Private affairs by University of Health Sciences. As she neither rejoined duty on 19-4-91 nor extended her leave even after 4 months, the Principal issued a Show Cause Notice on 3-9-91 to explain as to why disciplinary action should not be taken against her. The registered cover sent in this regard was received by her on 9-9-91 as informed by the Postal Authorities. As she didnot send any reply nor rejoined duty, the Principal referred the matter to University of Health Sciences and an Enquiry Officer was appointed on 20-2-92 to enquire into the matter of her unauthorised absence.

On the advice of the Enquiry Officer the Principal, S.M.C. had issued to her a final notice on 19-8-92 directing her to report before the Enquiry Officer. It was noticed that the Registered Cover containing the final notice was received by her care of addressee by name Sri G. Subba Rao, H.M.

After waiting for more than 15 months in good faith and making personal enquiries about her, the Enquiry Officer has submitted his report in which he has reported that Dr.(Mrs) G. Vanajakshi has left the Country to join her husband Dr.P. Karunakara (who happens to be a former employee of SMC) who has already settled in United States of America and that her coming back to join duty may not arise.

However, as suggested by the Enquiry Officer Dr (Mrs) G. Vanajakshi is hereby given a final chance to show cause as to why her services should not be terminated for failing to send her reply to the two show cause notices issued by the Principal, Siddhartha Medical College and also for failing to appear before the Enquiry Officer even though she had received the intimations.

Her reply should reach the Registrar within Seven Days of publication of this Show Cause Notice in the A.P. Gazette failing which, her services shall be terminated.

6-10-1993 from Enquiry Officer/Munsiff Magistrate, Siddipet.

Dis.No. 7256.-Sri Mohd. Haji, Steno-typist, Munsiff Magistrate Court, Gajwel has initially applied for long leave for three months w.e.f. 1-8-1992 to 31-10-1992, on medical certificate and has been extending the same from time to time. The leave application received through the concerned Presiding Officer were returned for furnishing the leave title of the individual and certain other particulars. The Munsiff Magistrate, Gajwel through his letter under the first reference has reported that at first instance, the individual has applied for leave for three months and then filed separate applications for leave upto 31-1-1993 and 31-7-1993 respectively. The Presiding Officer has also reported that the individual is continuously absent without any prior permission since August, 1992 and it cannot be said whether he intends to join duty after expiry of the leave applied for and that it is a fit case to initiate appropriate action against the individual before considering the leave applications. Hence considering that the behaviour of the individual amounts to mis-conduct under the Conduct Rules, a detailed enquiry was ordered to be made under C.C.A.

Rules against the individual for further action under 2nd reference, appointing Sri P. Prabhakar, Munsiff Magistrate Siddipet as Enquiry Officer.

The Enquiry Officer framed the following charges against the delinquent:

"That you found continuous absent from the duties without prior permission from August, 1992 onwards.
At the first instance you have applied leave from 1-8-1992 to 31-10-1992 supporting Medical Certificates and has been extending the leave from time to time upto 31-7-1993 and it cannot be said that whether you intend to join duty after the expiry of the leave applied for. Your above act amounts to mis-conduct and cause lot of in-convenience to the official work".

and examined one witness. It is stated in the Enquiry Report that the notice of the Enquiry (including the charge) could not be served on the delinquent as he was absent and therefore, the delinquent was set exparte and the proceedings were held in the absence of the delinquent. The Enquiry Officer is of the opinion that the charge against the delinquent is proved beyond all reasonable doubt.

Perused the entire record and considered. The report of the Enquiry Officer is provisionally accepted.
Therefore, while forwarding herewith the copy of the Enquiry Report, Sri Mohd. Haji, Steno-typist, Munsiff Magistrate Court, Gajwel is called upon to show cause within one month from the date of publication of this notice in the Andhra Pradesh Gazette as to why his services should not be terminated w.e.f. 1-8-1992. If the explanation is not received within the stipulated time, it will be deemed that he has no explanation to offer and the matter will be proceeded with as per rules.
