To
Deputy Commissioner(CT)s of All Divisions,

Sir/Madam,

I am to inform you that Government through GOMs No 1292 Rev(CT.II)Dept dated 14-10-2010 amended Rule24 of APVAT Rules2005 wef 01-10-2010.

As per the amended provisions, the tax declared to be due shall be paid by way of remittance into the treasury or by way of online payment through Internet website of the CT Department. In other words, the facility to pay monthly tax due through cheque/DD is withdrawn wef 01-10-2010 as per the amended Rules.

However, in view of the requests of the representatives of the dealers, the date of mandatory implementation of the said Rule was extended twice and till 31-01-2011.

But even now, representations are received by Commissioner(CT) from tax practitioners and some dealers that the withdrawal of the facility of payment of tax through cheque/DD is not known to all the dealers due to inadequate publicity at field level.

I am therefore directed by the Commissioner(CT) to inform you to make publicity through trade meetings and news items that payment will be accepted through ePayment or through treasury challan only as per latest amendment and this will be mandatory for all VAT/CST payments with effect from April 1, 2011.
