this Lease Deed by any of the parties mentioned in this clause shall be construed as breach by the Lessee.

b) In the event of violence due to war or civil commotion or fire accident, storm, tempest, flood, earthquake or any inevitable accident or any other irresistible force or an act of God (not being an act or omission on the part of the Lessee, its agents servants etc.) causing damage to the Demised Premises or part thereof to an extent that prohibits/prevents the Lessee from occupying the premises or part thereof, the Lessor will to the satisfaction of the Lessee restore and reinstate the Demised Premises within a period of three (3) months at her cost and expense, and during which time the rent or proportionate part thereof shall remain suspended until the Demised Premises is restored and reinstated and made ready for use and occupation of the Lessee provided always that if the Demised Premises is not restored and reinstated and made ready for use and occupation within a period of three (3) months or any extension thereof from the date of the happening of any of the aforesaid events the Lessee shall be at liberty without prejudice to its rights under any provisions of this lease to terminate the lease by giving thirty (30) days notice in writing and thereupon this lease shall stand terminated without prejudice to any claim by either party against the other in respect of any breach of the terms and conditions of this lease deed save and except the refund of the entire amount of security deposit by the Lessor to the Lessee. However, the Lessor shall not be liable, in any manner whatsoever, to the Lessee for any damage suffered by or occasioned to the property and person of the Lessee or its employees or other personnel arising out of any natural disasters.

c) It shall be a default of this lease if the Lessee fails or neglects to pay the rent for any three consecutive months whether demanded or not, or materially violates any of the terms provided herein and the Lessor may issue a notice thereof to the Lessee. If any such default continues unabated for one month after notice thereof by the Lessor to the Lessee, the Lessor will be entitled to terminate this lease, notwithstanding the fact that the contractual period (that is, the term) of this Lease has not expired.
