ORDER

Appeal No : 202 / 2012 (H-II) S.Tax

The subject appeal along with stay petition has been filed by M/s.Greenwood Estates, 5-4-187/3&4, 2nd Floor, M.G.Road, Secunderabad-500 003 (hereinafter referred to as Appellants) against Order-in-Original No.51/2012-Adjn.(ST) dated 31.08.2012 passed by the Additional Commissioner of Service Tax, Hyderabad-II Commissionerate (hereinafter referred to as Respondent).

2. Brief facts of the case are that the appellants are engaged in providing works contract service. Verification of their records revealed that they had undertaken a single venture by name Greenwood Estates located at Kowkur Village, Malkajgiri Mandal, and received amount from customers towards sale of land and agreement of construction of 102 houses for the period Jan., 2010 to Dec., 2010. It was also found that the appellant had not filed ST.3 returns for the said period. The subject venture of M/s Greenwood Estates qualified to be a residential complex as it contained more than 12 residential units with common area and common facilities like park, common water supply etc. and the lay out was approved by HUDA. It was also found that the appellant entered into a sale deed for sale of undivided portion of land together with semi-finished portion of the flat and an agreement for construction with their customers. On execution of sale deed the right in a property got transferred to the customer, hence the construction service rendered by the appellant thereafter to their customers under agreement of construction were taxable under service tax as there existed service provider and receiver relationship between them. The total amount received by the appellant towards such service was Rs. 11,65,4,336/- during the period Jan., 2010 to Dec., 2010.

2.1. Therefore two show cause notices were issued to the appellants covering the period Jan., 2010 to Dec., 2010 vide O.R.No. 61/2011-Adj(ST)Gr.X dt. 23.4.2011 for Rs. 48,00,391/- under Section 73 of FA, 1994 along with interest under Section 75 of FA, 1994 and proposing penal action under Section 76 and 77 of FA, 1994 and for the period Jan., 2011 to Dec., 2011 vide O.R.No.52/2012-Adj(ST)Gr.X dt. 24.4.2012 for Rs. 46,81,850/- under Section 73 of FA, 1994 along with interest under Section 75 and proposing penal action under Section 76 and 77 of FA, 1994. As the issue involved was the same, the lower authority took up disposal of both the SCNs and the lower authority vide impugned order had confirmed the demand of service tax of Rs. 48,00,931/- in respect of SCN O.R.No. 61/2011-Adjn.(ST) dt. 23.04.2011 under Section 73(2) of the Finance Act, 1994 alongwith applicable interest under Section 75 of FA and also imposed penalty of Rs. 200/- per day or at the rate of 2% of such tax per month, which ever was higher, for the period of default till the date of payment, under Section 76 and also imposed a penalty of Rs.1,000/- under Section 77 of the FA. Further in respect of SCN O.R.No. 52/2012-Adjn.(ST) dt. 24.4.2012, the lower authority confirmed the demand of service tax of Rs.46,81,850/- under Section 73(2) of the Finance Act, 1994 alongwith applicable interest under Section 75 of FA and also imposed penalty of Rs. 200/- per day or at the rate of 2% of such tax per month, which ever was higher, for the period of default till the date of payment, under Section 76 and also imposed a penalty of Rs. 1,000/- under Section 77 of the FA.

3. Aggrieved by the above order, the appellants have filed the present appeal along with stay petition mainly on the following grounds that:-

- (i) The Adjudicating Authority had not dealt with the submissions made by them during the replies to the SCN. Hence, the order has been issued with revenue bias without appreciating the statutory provision, the relevant case laws cited by them and also the objective of the transaction/activity/agreement. Relied on various decisions rendered relying on the Circular 108 which is the crux of the entire issue are as under:
 - Classic Promoters vs CCE Mangalore 2009-TIOL-1106-CESTAT-Bang,
 - Virgo Properties Pvt Ltd Vs CST, Chen 2010) 2010-TIOL-1142-CESTAT-MAD
 - Ardra Associates Vs. CCE, Calicut - [2009] 22 STT 450 (BANG. -CESTAT)
 - Ocean Builders vs CCE., Mangalore 2010 (019) STR 0546 Tri.-Bang
 - Montisham Complexes Pvt. Ltd. vs CCE., Manga 2009 (016) STR 0448 Tri.-Bang
 - Shri Sai Constructions vs CST, Bangalore 2009 (016) STR 0445 Tri.-Bang
- (ii) They also placed reliance on circular No.108/02/2009-ST dt 29.02.2009 and two other circulars F. No. B1/6/2005-TRU, dt 27-7-2005 and F.No. 332/35/2006-TRU, dt 1-8-2006.

- (iii) The issue involved in the instant case is whether the appellants are out of service tax levy since the ultimate consumer has put the same for personal use and covered vide Circular 108 and other circular. However in the subject order the discussion is restricted only to the classification of the service provided which was not an issue relevant to the present case. Both the notice and the Appellant are in consensus that the service provided is 'works contract services'. Hence, in such a situation the reliance on Circular No. 128/10/2010-ST dated 24.08.2010 is undesirable and out of context.
- (iv) The impugned order has relied on the decision of the authority on advance ruling in the case of Hare Krishna Developers 2008 (10) S.T.R. 357 (A.A.R). It is pertinent to note the facts of the case are entirely different from facts of the present case and does not support the contention of the adjudicating authority.
- (v) They are rendering works contract service as defined in Section 65 (105) (zzzza) of the Finance Act, 1994, it was also accepted by the subject order. The works contract service is provided in relation to construction of a new residential complex.
- (vi) Non-taxability of the construction service provided for an individual customer intended for his personal was clarified by TRU vide its letter dated F. No. B1/6/2005-TRU, dated 27-7-2005 during the introduction of the levy, therefore the service tax is not payable on such consideration from abinitio.
- (vii) The Board Circular No. 108/2/2009-S.T., dated 29-1-2009 states that the construction for personal use of the customer falls within the ambit of exclusion portion of the definition of the "residential complex" as defined u/s 65(91a) of the Finance Act, 1994 and accordingly no service tax is payable on such transaction.
- (viii) The clarification provided above is that in the under mentioned two scenario service tax is not payable, (a) For service provided until the sale deed has been executed to the ultimate owner and (b) For service provided by entering into construction agreement with such ultimate owner, who receives the constructed flat for his personal use.
- (ix) The first clarification pertains to consideration received for construction in the sale deed portion. The second clarification pertains to construction in the construction agreement portion. Therefore the clarification is applicable to them ibid and with the above exclusion from the definition, no service tax is payable at all for the consideration pertaining to construction service provided for its customer and accordingly the SCN is void abinitio.
- (x) Assuming but not admitting that the personal use ground fails, they are not liable to pay service tax in as much as the demand raised for the period prior to the date of the explanation is inserted. The explanation is inserted with effective from 01.07.2010 but the demand raised in the instant case is for the period 08.05.2010 and therefore the demand raised is bad in law. In the clarification issued by board TRU vide D.O.F No. 334/1/2010-TRU dated 26.02.2010 it was stated that in order to bring parity in tax treatment among different practices, the said explanation of the same being prospective and also clarifies that the transaction between the builder and buyer of the flat is not taxable until the assent was given to the bill. Hence this shows that the transaction in question is not liable to service tax for the period prior to 01.07.2010.
- (xi) Further Notification No. 36/2010-ST dated 28.06.2010 and Circular No. D.O.F. 334/03/2010-TRU dated 01.07.2010 exempts advances received prior to 01.07.2010, this itself indicates that the liability of service tax has been triggered for the construction service provided after 01.07.2010 and not prior to that, hence there is no liability of service tax during the period of the subject notice. The Trade notice F.No VGN(30)80/Trade Notice/10/Pune dated 15.02.2011 issued by Pune Commissionerate, has specifically clarified that no service tax is payable by the builder prior to 01.07.2010 and amounts received prior to that is also exempted. Since part of the period in the issue involved is prior to such date the order to that extent has to be set aside. Relied in the case of Mohtisham Complexes (P) Ltd. vs CCE, Mangalore 2011 (021) STR 0551 Tri.-Bang stating that the explanation inserted to Section 65(105)(zzzh) from 01.07.2010 is prospective in nature and not retrospective and in the case of Ambika Paints Ply & Hardware Store vs Commissioner of Central Excise, Bhopal 2012 (27) STR 71 (Tri-Del).

- (xii) They filed the Nil returns for all the periods, since they believed that the activity carried out was not a taxable service and therefore not leviable to service tax. However, they had constantly corresponded with the department and submitted all the information asked for by the department. Penalty under Section 77 is not leviable in as much as they have filed the ST-3 returns for all the periods in the present order.
- (xiii) For the period January 2010 to December 2010, the SCN had claimed that entire receipts of Rs.11,65,14,336/- are taxable. However, appellant is unable to understand how the said figures have been arrived at by the Adjudicating Authority. As per the statement submitted, the total receipts during the period are Rs. 10,69,12,235/-. Out of the said amount Rs.3,66,12,000/- is received towards value of sale deed and Rs.1,29,93,880/- is towards taxes and other charges which shall not be leviable to service tax. They had given breakup of such amounts along with the documentary proof for all such amounts which are Rs.2, 00,000/- or above. Therefore, assuming but not admitting, service tax if any is payable should be levied only on amount of Rs.5,73,06,355/-and not on the entire amount as envisaged in the order.
- (xiv) For the period January 2011 to December 2011, the SCN had claimed that entire receipts of Rs.11, 36, 37,141/- are taxable without providing the permissible deductions. Out of the said amount Rs.4,36,26,000/-is received towards value of sale deed and Rs.1,00,70,537/-is towards taxes and other charges which shall not be leviable to service tax. They had given breakup of such amounts along with the documentary proof for all such amounts which are Rs.2, 00,000/- or above. Therefore, assuming but not admitting, service tax if any is payable should be levied only on amount of Rs.5,99,40,604/-and not on the entire amount as envisaged in the order.
- (xv) The service tax is to be levied on Rs.5,99,40,694/- for the period January 2011-December 2011. Thus the service tax liability shall amount to Rs.24, 69,553/-. Out of the said amount Rs.5,98,671/- was paid on 21.12.2011 and disclosed in the ST-3 returns filed for the period and Rs.18, 31,216/- was paid vide Challan dated 18.02.2012 and Rs.39,666/- has been paid by utilization of Cenvat Credit.
- (xvi) Without prejudice to the foregoing, when service tax itself is not payable, the question of interest and penalty does not arise. It is a natural corollary that when the principal is not payable there can be no question of paying any interest as held by the Supreme Court in Prathiba Processors Vs. UOI, 1996 (88) ELT 12 (SC) and in the case of CCE v. Bill Forge Pvt. Ltd. 2012 (279) E.L.T. 209 (Kar.)
- (xvii) The service tax liability on the builders till date has not been settled and there is full of confusion on the correct position till date. With this background it is a settled proposition of law that when the assessee acts with a bonafide belief especially when there is doubt as to statute also the law being new and not yet understood by the common public, there cannot be intention of evasion and penalty cannot be levied. They relied in the case of CCU vs Unitech Exports Ltd. 1999 (108) E.L.T. 462 and HUL Ltd. vs CCE 2010 (250) E.L.T. 251 (Tri. - Del.)
- (xviii) Para 23 of the impugned order has made a finding that the appellant's have made out a reasonable cause so as to exonerate them from the penalties by invoking Section 80. They relied in the following case laws:
- Guardian Leisure Planners Pvt. Ltd. 2007 (6) S.T.R. (Tri-Kolkata Trans (India)
 - Shipping Pvt. Ltd. 2005 (188) E.L.T. 445 (Tri-Chennai)
 - SPIC & SPAN Security and Allied Services 2006 (1) S.T.R.
- (xix) It was under bonafide belief that their activity was a works contract. There was confusion as to interpretation of the words in different taxing statutes differently, They had a reasonable cause for the failure to pay the service tax. Therefore, penalties under various sections should be set-aside. They relied in the following case laws:
- CCE vs. Ess Ess Kay Engineering Co. Ltd. [2008] 14 STT 417 (New Delhi – CESTAT
 - ABS Inc. vs Commr. of C. Ex., Ahmedabad 2009 (016) STR 0573 Tri-Ahmd
 - Jay Ganesh Auto Centre vs CCE, Rajkot 2009 (015) STR 0710 Tri-Ahmd,

4. The stay petition filed by the appellants was disposed off vide OISP No.65/2012 (H-II) ST dated 07.12.2012, wherein it was directed to pre-deposit 50% of the tax amount as confirmed vide the impugned order. However the pre-deposit of balance amounts, interest and penalties were waived. The appellants vide 17.01.2013 had submitted that they had made the pre-deposit as required.
5. When the main appeal was posted for personal hearing on 27.02.2013, Shri. V.S.Sudhir, CA, appeared on behalf of the appellants for disposal of the appeal and made the following submissions:
 - (i) Reiterated the submissions made in the grounds of main appeal.
 - (ii) Construction of flats for individuals does not come under 'Works Contract Service' definition as construction of individual flat/unit would not come under meaning of construction of residential complex or a part thereof.
 - (iii) As per Board's Circular No. 108/02/2009-ST dt. 29.1.2009, it has been clarified that residential unit sold for a customer for his personal use is not liable to service tax. In the impugned order of the adjudicating authority has only considered the conclusion of the Board's Circular and the preamble or the arguments have not been taken into consideration while adjudicating the show cause notice.
 - (iv) It is further submitted that builders became liable to service tax from 1.7.2010 as per Finance Act, 2010 as per Explanation added to the taxable service.
 - (v) Since the matter was not free from confusion, the facts were intimated to the department and the issue involved is a matter of interpretation, penalty under Section 80 may be waived as the appellant had acted under bonafide belief.
 - (vi) The appellant is not clear with regard to quantification of service tax, demanded and confirmed. As per their view, for the period Jan., 2010 to Dec., 2010, the taxable value should be Rs. 5,73,06,000/- instead of Rs. 11,65,14,000/- as mentioned in the show cause notice.
6. I have gone through the impugned order, grounds of appeal, submissions made at the time of personal hearing and findings made by the lower authority in the impugned order. The issues to be decided in these appeals are (i) whether construction activity undertaken by the appellants falls under Construction of Residential Complex Service or under Works Contract Service ? (ii) whether service tax is payable by the appellants in the light of the Board's Circular No.108/2/2009 – ST dt.29.01.2009? (iii) whether re-quantification of demand is required or not ? (iv) whether penalties are imposable for the impugned period ? and (vi) whether cenvat credit is available on capital goods and input services ?
7. As far as classification and taxability aspects are concerned, it is pertinent to look into the relevant statutory provisions of the Finance Act, 1994.

Section 65 (91a) of the Finance Act,1994 : “residential complex” means any complex comprising of —

- (i) a building or buildings, having more than twelve residential units;
- (ii) a common area; and
- (iii) any one or more of facilities or services such as park, lift, parking space, community hall, common water supply or effluent treatment system, located within a premises and the layout of such premises is approved by an authority under any law for the time being in force, but does not include a complex which is constructed by a person directly engaging any other person for designing or planning of the layout, and the construction of such complex is intended for personal use as residence by such person.

Explanation. — For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that for the purposes of this clause, —

- (a) "personal use" includes permitting the complex for use as residence, by another person on rent or without consideration;
- (b) "residential unit" means a single house or a single apartment intended for use as a place of residence;

Section 65 (105) (zzzh) of the Finance Act, 1994 "taxable service" means any service provided or to be provided to any person, by any other person, in relation to construction of complex;

Explanation. — For the purposes of this sub-clause, construction of a complex which is intended for sale, wholly or partly, by a builder or any person authorised by the builder before, during or after construction (except in cases for which no sum is received from or on behalf of the prospective buyer by the builder or a person authorised by the builder before the grant of completion certificate by the authority competent to issue such certificate under any law for the time being in force) shall be deemed to be service provided by the builder to the buyer;

Section 65 (105) (zzzza) of the Finance Act, 1994: Taxable Service under Works Contract means to any person, by any other person in relation to the execution of a works contract, excluding works contract in respect of roads, airports, railways, transport terminals, bridges, tunnels and dams.

Explanation. — For the purposes of this sub-clause, "works contract" means a contract wherein, —

- (i) transfer of property in goods involved in the execution of such contract is leviable to tax as sale of goods, and
- (ii) such contract is for the purposes of carrying out, —
 - (a) -----; or
 - (b) -----; or
 - (c) construction of a new residential complex or a part thereof; or

7.1. The impugned order has arisen out of the periodical demands issued for subsequent period from Jan, 09 to Dec, 2009 which was decided in favour of revenue in OIA No. 11/2011(H-II) S. Tax dt 31.1.2011. As per the above statutory provisions, the appellants are liable to pay service tax on the construction of residential complex undertaken by them since the above mentioned definition of Residential Complex service squarely applicable and no exemption whatsoever can be allowed for such construction activity as it is not meant for self use and "taxable service" means any service provided or to be provided to any person, by any other person, in relation to construction of complex. It is observed from the records that the appellants had paid service tax on the amounts attributable to the value received by them over and above the sale deed values till Dec, 2008 under Works Contract Service during the impugned period in respect of construction activity undertaken by them and not paid service tax for the period from January 2010 to December 2011 under the pretext that there is no service tax liability on the service rendered by them in view of the Board's Circular No. 108/02/2009-ST dt. 29.01.2009. Thereby, it is evident that the appellants had not paid service tax on the amount pertaining to the sale deed till December 2008 and paid service tax only on the part of amounts received towards construction agreements entered with their customers. Further, it is also observed that the appellants had collected total value of the independent houses from the customers and entered into sale deed agreements and construction agreements simultaneously and paid service tax amount to the department on the value excluding the value of sale deed and not paid any service tax for the period January 2010 to December 2011. From these two agreements, it is evident that construction of flat is not yet completed to treat it as a sale of flat. Board's Circular No. 108/102/2009-ST dated 29.01.2009 states that "It is only after the completion of construction and full payment of the agreed sum that a sale deed is executed and only then the ownership of the property gets transferred to the ultimate owner. Therefore, any service provided by such seller in connection with the construction of residential complex till the execution of such sale deed would be in the nature of 'self-service' consequently would not attract service tax." It implies that three conditions should be satisfied for not attracting service tax (i) construction should be completed, (ii) full payment of the agreed sum should be paid, and (iii) sale deed should be executed for the full value of the residential unit. In the present appellant's case, though full payments were made, construction was not complete and sale deed was executed for part amount of the total consideration. As such, the appellants are not covered by the situation explained in the Board's circular referred to above. In view of this position, the appellants' argument that they are covered by the impugned Board's Circular is without any basis.

7.2. Board has also clarified in the said circular that "if the ultimate owner enters into a contract for construction of a residential complex with a promoter / builder / developer, who himself provides service of design, planning and construction; and after such construction the ultimate owner receives such property for his personal use, then such activity would not be subjected to service tax, because this case would fall under the exclusion provided in the definition of 'residential complex.'" Exclusion clause would apply to the "complex as a whole" and not to individual residential units. In other words, if the entire residential complex is meant for use by one person then it gets excluded from the definition of "residential complex". For example, if 'BHEL' gets their residential colony (having more than 12 units) for their employees constructed from a builder or Income Tax Department gets their residential colony constructed from a builder, then such construction would not attract service tax. However, this exclusion does not apply to individual residential units as in the instant case. In other words, if a builder constructs residential complex and sells the residential units to number of individuals under "two agreement system" viz., sale deed and construction agreement as in the instant cases, then, even though such individual unit is for personal use of that customer, still the service tax is liable to be paid. As stated above, "entire complex as a whole" meant for use by one person is under 'exclusion' clause and not the 'individual residential unit'. Secondly, each "construction agreement" with the customer is a "works contract" independent of the agreement entered, with another customer. Therefore, the contentions of the appellants on this count cannot be agreed.

7.3. In view of the above, I find no merits or force in the grounds and contentions submitted by the appellants and the case laws relied are also not helpful to them. In this regard, I concur with the findings made in the impugned order by the lower authority.

8. I find that the lower authority has recorded that cenvat credit can be taken in the strength of valid documents on eligible capital goods and input services, the assessee has to take the credit in accordance with the Rules, the department is not obliged to determine their cenvat credit eligibility while demanding service tax on the taxable services accordingly their contention does not have substance. I do agree with the finding of the lower authority.

9. With regard to demand of service tax and imposition of penalties, it is pertinent to examine the relevant statutory provisions as reproduced below:

SECTION 73. Recovery of service tax not levied or paid or short-levied or short-paid or erroneously refunded. —

(1) Where any service tax has not been levied or paid or has been short-levied or short-paid or erroneously refunded, [Central Excise Officer] may, within one year from the relevant date, serve notice on the person chargeable with the service tax which has not been levied or paid or which has been short-levied or short-paid or the person to whom such tax refund has erroneously been made, requiring him to show cause why he should not pay the amount specified in the notice :

Provided that where any service tax has not been levied or paid or has been short-levied or short-paid or erroneously refunded by reason of —

(a) fraud; or (b) collusion; or (c) wilful mis-statement; or (d) suppression of facts; or (e) contravention of any of the provisions of this Chapter or of the rules made thereunder with intent to evade payment of service tax, by the person chargeable with the service tax or his agent, the provisions of this sub-section shall have effect, as if, for the words “one year”, the words “five years” had been substituted.

SECTION 76. Penalty for failure to pay service tax. — Any person, liable to pay service tax in accordance with the provisions of section 68 or the rules made under this Chapter, who fails to pay such tax, shall pay, in addition to such tax and the interest on that tax in accordance with the provisions of section 75, a penalty which shall not be less than [two hundred rupees] for every day during which such failure continues or at the rate of [two per cent] of such tax, per month, whichever is higher, starting with the first day after the due date till the date of actual payment of the outstanding amount of service tax :

However, w.e.f 8.4.2011 instead of two hundred rupees the words one hundred rupees has been substituted.

SECTION 77. Penalty for contravention of rules and provisions of Act for which no penalty is specified elsewhere. —

(1) Any person, —

(2) Any person, who contravenes any of the provisions of this Chapter or any rules made there under for which no penalty is separately provided in this Chapter, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to five thousand rupees.

9.1. With regard to the demand of service tax and imposition of penalties I find no force in their submissions in view of the fact that the appellants had obtained service tax registration and paid service tax under works contract service stopped payment of service tax abruptly misinterpreting the Circular No. 108/02/2009-ST dt.29.01.2009 issued by the Board even though they received taxable amounts from their customers during the said period, contravening the provisions of Works Contract (Composition Scheme for Payment of Service Tax) Rules,2007 with an intention to evade payment of duty since the clarification sought by them was negated by the department by issue of the subject show cause notice not accepting their contention regarding applicability of the said Board's Circular to them stopping payment of service tax. The fact of non-payment of service tax had come to light only after department conducted investigation proceedings. Accordingly two periodical notices from Jan,2010 to Dec,10 and Jan,11 to Dec,11 even though the appellants are filing ST-3 returns they had not shown the fact of receipt of taxable amounts from their customers in their ST 3 returns filed with the department, with an intention to evade / avoid payment of service tax as such on their part cannot be treated as bonafide act, as claimed by them and imposition of penalty is rightly applicable in the instant case and I concur with the findings of the lower authority in this regard and the case laws relied are not helpful to them.

10. SECTION 80. Penalty not to be imposed in certain cases — Notwithstanding anything contained in the provisions of section 76, [section 77 or section 78], no penalty shall be imposed on the assessee for any failure referred to in the said provisions if the assessee proves that there was reasonable cause for the said failure.

As per Section 80 of the Finance Act, 1994, there is provision for not imposing any penalty if the appellants proved that there was a reasonable cause for said failure. They merely stated that with a bonafide belief they had not paid service tax on the basis of clarification issued in the Board's Circular No.108/02/2009-ST dt.29.01.2009, which is contrary to the statutory obligation cast upon the appellants under Works Contract Rules,2007. Such a bald statement cannot be acceptable. There should have cogent reasons as to what made to bonafidely believe that they were not liable to pay service tax on such defrayed amounts. This reason is not reasonable cause for attracting waiver of penalty under Section 80 of the Finance Act,1994. The scope and ambit of expression 'reasonable cause' has been well explained in a case under the Income Tax Act. 'Reasonable cause can be said to be cause which prevents a man of average intelligence and ordinary prudence, acting under normal circumstances, without negligence or inaction or want of bonafides' as held in the case of Azadi Bachao Andolan Vs. Union of India 2001 (116) Taxman 249/252 ITR 471 (Delhi). Further, it is evident from the record that the Appellants had not shown the taxable amounts in their ST 3 returns filed with the department during January 2009 to December 2009 even though they received taxable amounts from their customers and not paid service tax on such taxable amounts as required under Works Contract (Composition Scheme for Payment of Service Tax) Rules,2007 and this fact came to the knowledge of the department after conducting investigation into their activities. In this regard, it can be noticed from the records of this case that the appellants vide their letter dt.08.7.2009 replied to the department's letter for non-filing of ST3 returns for Half Year ending 31.3.2009 that they were not required to pay service tax on the construction activity undertaken by them in the light of Hon'ble Gauhati High Court's decision in the case of Magus Construction (P) Ltd – 2008 (11) STR 225 (Gau) and Board's Circular No.108/02/2009-ST dt. 29.01.2009, but the department had issued subject show cause notice not accepting their contention. Therefore, it is evident on record that their bonafide belief for non-payment of service tax is defeated. Further the case law cited in their letter is distinguished by the Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court's decision in the case of G.S. Promoters Vs. Union of India reported in 2011 (21) STR 10 (P & H) as detailed in para 8.4 supra. Thus, they had not paid service tax on the taxable amounts received from their customers with an intention to avoid / evade payment of tax contrary to the statutory provisions. Adhering to the ratio of the above decision, there is nothing on record to show that the Appellants were prevented by reasonable cause for non-payment of service tax to entitle them for grant waiver of penalty under Section 80 of the Finance Act,1994. It should be kept in mind that under Section 80 of the Finance Act,1994, where the person / assessee succeeds in proving reasonable cause for failure to pay service tax, penalty may be waived altogether. But such is not the situation in the instant case. The Appellants had not proved reasonable cause for non-payment of service tax as required under Section 80 of the Finance Act,1994 in as much as this is not the first instance but it is a case of repetition' of default. Considering the gravity of the offence, I hold that their case is not a fit case for waiver of penalty under Section 80 of the Finance Act,1994.

11. With regard to the quantification of service tax, it is observed that the lower authority vide para 22 of the impugned order, had held that neither they submitted that VAT amount has also been included in the gross amount nor they had furnished before him any evidence that they had paid VAT. However, the appellants had submitted that there is mistake in quantification of service demand for the two periods viz from Jan,2010 to Dec,2010 the service tax to be quantified on the value of Rs.5,73,06,000/- but not Rs.11,65,14,000/- and similarly for the period Jan,11 to Dec,11, the service tax be quantified on the value of Rs.5,99,40,694/-. They also contested that an amount Rs.5,98,671/- was paid on 21.12.2011 and disclosed in the ST-3 returns filed for the period and Rs.18,31,216/- was paid vide Challan dated 18.02.2012. Therefore, the lower authority is directed to ascertain the factual position to re-quantify the service tax payable (after deducting the service tax paid if their claim is correct) and extend the benefit if they are found otherwise eligible for the same and an opportunity of personal hearing may be given to the appellants before this limited matter is decided.

12. With regard to imposition of penalty under Section 76 of FA,1994 they are liable for imposition of penalty as imposed by the lower authority however, the penalty is to be reduced to Rs.100 from Rs.200 with effect from 8.4.2011, thus the penalty imposed under Section 76 is modified to the above extent. With regard to imposition of penalty under 77 of FA, 1994 by the lower authority as penalty under Section 76 has been imposed there is no need of penalty under Section 77. The impugned order passed by the lower authority is modified to the above extent.

13. The appeal is disposed of in above terms.
