My dear Modiji,

I have been trying to contact you on phone several times, but was unable to get you. Please therefore try to contact me on phone immediately on receipt of this letter

I also invite your immediate attention to my letter Dt. 29th Sept., 1984 and subsequent reminder dated 30th October 1984 wherein I had requested you to send you Bank Draft or cheque for the interest due from you as per statements sent with my letter of 29th September 1984.

I had further requested you to please return the principal amounts borrowed by you and your allied concern

Please arrange to do the needful in the above matter immediately.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

L.P.P.

Dear Mr. Modi,

A cheque for Rs. 3 lacs bearing No. 012576 dated 11.9.1980 on Central Bank of India, Hyderabad was issued by you in my favour. This information has been communicate by me to the Income-tax Officer, Central Circle XXX, Bombay in the course of my assessment for 1981-82.

On further enquiry by the Income-tax Officer, I will state the correct facts that the amount was received in connection with negotiation for sale of property at Azamak Hyderabad belonging to my HUF. Subsequently the sale was completed in favour of your various firms as per ^{my} letter dated 16th October 1980 ^{at 23rd Dec 1980} and the account was adjusted.

In case the Income-tax Officer refers to you kindly discuss the matter with me before replying so that there is no discrepancy in our statements.

With regards,

Yours

Sincerely
L.P.Pittie

Dear Mr. Modi,

Today I learnt from Mr. Gandhi about the demise of your revered father. Please accept my heart-felt condolences and convey the same to your family members. May God rest his soul in eternal peace and bestow you and your family courage to bear this irreparable loss.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,
