Dear MD sir,

Today around 08.30 am at PMR-II site Contractor Mr.Kailash pandey civil worker (Mr.Narbhad) fallen from wooden tadaka while doing plastering work in D-527 flat and got severe ankle fracture in his left leg, immediately we have shifted him to Soorya Arthopaeodic hospital near ECIL, after taking X-ray doctor told that he need immediate surgery where he is having severe bleeding.

The above matter is also informed to Admin and Padmanabha to shift the patient to Aakar Asha hospital, as per Padmanabha sir information there were no doctors available today at Aakar Asha and with advise of contractor Mr.Kailash we have admitted him in the same Hospital for the surgery.

Surgery is costing around Rs.60000/- to 70000/-, surgery is going to start by 01.30 pm today (Surgeon : Mr.Jagadish babu)

Note : Worker used poor quality of ballie to support wooden tadaka.

This is for your information

Regards,

J Rambabu
