Sir,

this is to bring to your kind consideration that I have started vetrified tiles flooring, where electrical & plumbing lines does not run below. when men and materials are available, I thought of proceeding with the work, nothing more than that. If it comes to toilets tiles, I must ensure that QC check is done, I do agree with it.

Regarding fixing of temporary doors, I admit that it is delayed. Flooring work started at 9.00 AM, doors were fixed by 11.50 AM.

I assure you this type of mistakes does not happen again. Hence I request you to kindly way off the fine imposed on me and Srinu.

Regards,
 Stephen.
